Without a Net William H. Shepherd, 2004 Does the idea of speaking without a manuscript in the pulpit make you feel like a trapeze artist trying to negotiate a high wire without a net There you are ly balancing delicately in the stratosphere and holding on for dear life with nothing but you and your ballet shoes wondering Why oh why didn t I bring even a sliver of paper up here to catch me when I fall For many pastors preaching without notes is a terrifying prospect yet reading verbatim from a manuscript prevents a sermon from being natural and spontaneous This book shows how you can learn to preach freely without needing the net of written reminders while still retaining full control over your material It presents a concise and workable method for creating memorable sermons that connect with listeners By focusing on delivery Shepherd casts the entire sermon preparation process including both study and composition in a completely new light Using this approach will make it easy to preach sermons without notes because they were meant to be preached in the paperless pulpit Featuring a user friendly design Without A Net is a convenient instructive text for both beginning and experienced preachers In addition to a complete system for constructing and delivering a sermon from start to finish there s a brief outline of the entire process that allows you to quickly locate more details on specific topics A concise nutshell summarizes each chapter s highlights and there are plenty of pithy hints and tips to help you with the essential steps Several sample sermons are also included so you can see how this approach actually works Preaching without a net may seem like magic to congregations But there s no real secret the answer is right here in this book With a little practice one day they ll be asking you too How do you do that William H Shepherd is an author teacher biblical scholar and Episcopal priest who currently serves as an Interim Ministry Specialist in the Diocese of Connecticut In addition to 19 years of experience in parish ministry he has taught preaching and biblical studies at Candler School of Theology Virginia Theological Seminary George Mercer Memorial School of Theology and Immaculate Conception
