Asian Migration Pacific Rim Dynamics:

Asian Migration, 1999 Migration to and From Taiwan Kuei-fen Chiu, Dafydd Fell, Lin Ping, 2014-01-21 Migration has transformed Taiwanese society in the last 20 years. The main inflows have been temporary workers from Southeast Asian countries and female spouses from Southeast Asia and China marrying Taiwanese husbands. The main outflow has been migration to China as a result of increased economic integration across the Taiwan Strait. These changes have significantly altered Taiwan's ethnic structure and have profound social and political implications for this new democracy. As large numbers of these migrants take Taiwanese citizenship and their offspring gain voting rights, the impact of these new Taiwanese will continue to increase. This book showcases some of the leading researchers working on migration to and from Taiwan. The chapters approach migration from a range of disciplinary perspectives including international relations, sociology, social work, film studies, political science, gender studies, geography, and political economy, and so the book has great appeal to scholars and students interested in the politics of Taiwan, Taiwanese society, and ethnic identity, as well as those focusing on migration in East Asia and comparative migration studies. Asian and Pacific Migration Journal, 2009

Multiculturalism in Asia Will Kymlicka, Baogang He, 2005 Using both case studies and thematic essays, this volume examines the pre-colonial traditions, colonial legacies, and post-colonial ideologies that influence contemporary debates on multiculturalism in the region. It explores the areas of convergence and divergence between these different perspectives and the extent to which they provide viable frameworks for managing ethnic and religious diversity in the region. BOOK JACKET

Approaching Transnationalisms Brenda Yeoh, Michael W. Charney, Tong Chee Kiong, 2003-06-30 The term transnationalism has gained considerable academic and popular currency despite a lack of clear definitions, in part because its overall form changes as its influence incorporates additional spheres of daily life on a variety of scales and contexts. The purpose of this volume is to bring together different perspectives on this phenomenon using case studies that represent some of the most current thinking on transnationalism in a wide range of disciplines. Central themes which this book explores include legal and economic reactions to transnational migration, the re-negotiation of identities in the context of changing national, social, and cultural identities, and the emergence of new imaginings of home and social space in transnational communities. Approaching Transnationalisms: Studies on Transnational Societies, Multicultural Contacts, and Imaginings of Home foregrounds powerful transnational forces crossing the boundaries of nation-states and at the same time gives attention to the continued significance of the nation-state and the diversity of localized reactions to transnational challenges.
