Aspects Of Gender A Study Of Crossdressing:

Aspects of Gender Lesley Gordon,1995 Aspects of Gender Lesley Gordon,1997 Cross Dressing, Sex, and Gender Vern L. Bullough,Bonnie Bullough,1993 Not only surveys cross dressing and gender impersonation throughout history and in a variety of cultures but examines the medical biological psychological and sociological findings that have been presented in modern scientific literature Aspects of Gender Lesley Gordon,1997 Crossdressing in Context, Vol. 1 Dress & Gender Gregory G. Bolich,Ph. D. G. G. Bolich,2007-04-02 The first in a five volume set this book reestablishes dress as a foundational context for crossdressing This major study demonstrates the interplay between sex gender and clothes especially as these relate to transgender behaviors of which crossdressing is the best known Dress & Gender: Crossdressing in Context Gregory G. Bolich,Ph. D. G. G. Bolich,2007-11-01 The first in a five volume set this book reestablishes dress as a foundational context for crossdressing This major study demonstrates the interplay between sex gender and clothes especially as these relate to transgender behaviors of which crossdressing is the best known

Transgender Identities in the Press Angela Zottola,2021-01-28 Winner of the PROSE Award 2022 for Language Linguistics For many people newspapers are a key source of information on many topics including issues related to gender and sexuality Applying a broad range of corpus linguistic methods Transgender Identities in the Press critically explores the linguistic cues and patterns used by the print media in their representation of trans people Through close analysis of a corpus of articles collected from English language newspapers from the UK and Canada Angela Zottola focuses on the semantic categories of representation associated with transgender identities Exploring a set of key terms this book examines the semantic prosody and the language choices that each term is invested with using Critical Discourse Analysis to investigate how the way the press represents this topic influences readers and their understanding of the major debates Using a mixture of quantitative and qualitative methods Transgender Identities in the Press casts light on the complex picture of press language during a period of social change and increasing awareness Highlighting both efforts to represent this community in an inclusive and non discriminatory way and areas where there is need for improvement this book illustrates a variety of issues from a critical and social perspective Cross Dressing, Sex, and Gender Vern L. Bullough,Bonnie Bullough,1993 Not only surveys cross dressing and gender impersonation throughout history and in a variety of cultures but examines the medical biological psychological and sociological findings that have been presented in modern scientific literature Male-to-Female Crossdressing in Early Modern English Literature Simone Chess,2016-04-14 This volume examines and theorizes the oft ignored phenomenon of male to female MTF crossdressing in early modern drama prose and poetry inviting MTF crossdressing episodes to take a fuller place alongside instances of female to male crossdressing and boy actors crossdressing which have long held the spotlight in early modern gender studies The author argues that MTF crossdressing episodes are especially rich sources for socially oriented readings of queer gender that crossdressers genders are constructed and represented in relation to romantic partners communities and broader social structures like marriage economy and sexuality Further she argues that these relational representations show that the crossdresser and his her allies often benefit financially socially and erotically from his her queer gender presentation a corrective to the dominant idea that queer gender has always been associated with shame containment and correction By attending to these relational and beneficial representations of MTF crossdressers in early modern literature the volume helps to make a larger space for queer genderqueer male bodied and queer feminine representations in our conversations about early modern gender and sexuality

Unzipping Gender Charlotte Suthrell,2004-04 How does culture shape notions of sexuality and gender Why are transvestites in the West so often seen as deviant or perverse while they are accepted in other societies What are the implications for the categories of male and female when considering transvestism Transvestism and its cultural practice is a useful lens through which we can view and thus debate models of sex gender and sexuality Drawing on primary fieldwork Unzipping Gender offers a cross cultural study of transvestism through an examination of transvestites in Britain and the Hijras of India The author tackles the critical question of whether or not transvestism is motivated primarily by sex or gender and she challenges the straightforward binary divide that dominates Western theories of gender Taking into account the importance of material culture she also pays close attention to the detail of dress and considers the artefactual nature of the construction of the self through clothing Highlighting the differences between the two groups and drawing on further cross cultural perspectives Suthrell illustrates the social construction of sex and gender She considers the roles that emotion mythology imagery and belief systems play in influencing ideas about sex and gender in different cultures Since sex and gender must inevitably be intertwined Suthrell argues for a more sophisticated response to the complex practice of transvestism In order to gain a deeper understanding of sex and gender issues it is imperative to examine the underlying social and symbolic structures This unique study across cultures leads the way Women Studies Abstracts ,1994

Negotiating Boundaries? Identities, Sexualities, Diversities Clare Beckett,Owen Heathcote,Marie Macey,2007

Negotiating Boundaries Identities Sexualities Diversities is a collection of essays by contributors from and or on societies across the world Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia France Iran The Netherlands New Zealand Poland South and West Africa the UK and the USA They are from a range of academic disciplines English Literature Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies Literary and Cultural Studies Modern Languages Religious Studies Social Anthropology Social Policy Sociology and Theology This level of diversity has resulted in the most wide ranging volume ever published in the social sciences and humanities around the concept of Boundaries The book is at the cutting edge of intellectual thinking on personal and social boundaries applied to such areas as Art Genocidal Rape Identities God Godde Lesbianism Literature Men in Women s Professions Muslim women in Muslim and non Muslim countries Nationalism and Symbolism Poetry Religion Sexual Harassment Sexuality Women in Science Transgenderism Virginity Testing and War This range of contributors locations and topics could have resulted in an incoherent volume with appeal to only a somewhat esoteric readership However the skilful use of the concept of Boundaries not only gives this book structured coherence but makes it important reading for a wide range of academics theorists and researchers in a diversity of disciplines This is a lively engaged nuanced portrayal of the struggles around identity inequality and domination Ambitious in its scope international interdisciplinary and multi dimensional in its social focus Identities Sexualities Diversities offers a powerful picture of struggle and the pursuit of change through the conceptual lens of boundaries This collection explores the diverse ways boundaries operate bringing new insights and questions to an established debate It also importantly explores how boundaries can provide bridges Thus through its interweaving of theory and empirical analysis and through its stories of bodies texts work sexual expression self presentation and changing values Identities Sexualities Diversities offers a text that is reflexive analytically thoughtful and significantly hopeful Davina Cooper Professor of Law and Political Theory Director of AHRC Research Centre for Law Gender and Sexuality Kent Law School University of Kent

This is a fascinating collection of papers that provides new and important insights into the variety and natures of boundaries around ethnicity identity and sexuality Using the complex concept of boundaries the writers explore identities sexualities and diversities through boundary crossings contested boundaries oppressive boundaries and creative resistant boundaries This provides a wonderful coherent engagement with some of the key struggles at the present time over contested territory at personal and global levels The range of articles ensures that these debates are contextualised in particular societies and cultures providing a rich source of theoretical material that helps our understandings of these complex and crucial issues The theoretical rigour and fascinating insights presented in this edited book deserves a wide readership from those involved in the social sciences women TM s studies the humanities and all those interested in transgressing conventional boundaries of scholarship Sheila Scraton Pro Vice Chancellor Director of University Research Professor of Leisure and Feminist Studies Leeds Metropolitan University

Passing Rhetories and the Performance of Gender Identity Kim Surkan, 2003 Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Health Issues, 2001 Papers from medical and social service professionals covering an array of health topics of interest to the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender communities in the United States Unzipping Gender Charlotte Suthrell, 2004 How does culture shape notions of sexuality and gender Why are transvestites in the West so often seen as deviant or perverse while they are accepted in other societies What are the implications for the categories of male and female when considering transvestism Transvestism and its cultural practice is a useful lens through which we can view and thus debate models of sex gender and sexuality Drawing on primary fieldwork Unzipping Gender offers a cross cultural study of transvestism through an examination of transvestites in Britain and the Hijras of India The author tackles the critical question of whether or not transvestism is motivated primarily by sex or gender and she challenges the straightforward binary divide that dominates Western theories of gender Taking into account the importance of material culture she also pays close attention to the detail of dress and considers the artefactual nature of the construction of the self through clothing Highlighting the differences between the two groups and drawing on further cross cultural perspectives Suthrell illustrates the social construction of sex and gender She considers the roles that emotion mythology imagery and belief systems play in influencing ideas about sex and gender in different cultures Since sex and gender must inevitably be intertwined Suthrell argues for a more sophisticated response to the complex practice of transvestism In order to gain a deeper understanding of sex and gender issues it is imperative to examine the underlying social and symbolic structures This unique study across cultures leads the way GLSG Newsletter for the Gay & Lesbian Study Group of the American Musicological Society,1999

Mental Health Issues in Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Communities Billy E. Jones,Marjorie J. Hill,2002 There are still many issues affecting the mental health of the members of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender communities that have not been discussed or sufficiently presented This volume addresses some of these issues in an attempt to differentiate health from pathology Transgender HIV/AIDS Prevention Program Manual Walter O. Bockting,1993

Male Femaling Richard Ekins,1997 Ekins vividly details the innermost desires and the varied practices of males who wear the clothes of women for the pleasure it gives them cross dressers or who wish to change sex and are actively going about it sex changers This unique and fascinating book transforms an area of study previously dominated by clinical models to look instead at cross dressing and sex changing as a highly variable social process tracing the path of the male femaler from beginning to consolidating femaling Based upon seventeen years of fieldwork life history work qualitative analysis archival work and contact with several thousand cross dressers and sex changers the book develops a theory of male femaling which has major ramifications for both the field of transvestism and transexualism and for the analysis of sex and gender more generally
