evolving digital landscape Gender-Based Violence in the Global South Ramona Biholar, Dacia L. Leslie, 2024-02-26 This book amplifies the different voices and experiences of those facing gender based violence GBV in the Global South It explores the localised ways in which marginalised individuals design modes of coping with and address GBV including cultural interpretations and artistic and faith based expressions The book examines GBV triggers prevalence and societal impacts while referring to community national and regional mobilisation to deal with the phenomenon in its various manifestations including physical psychological political domestic and public violence It explores issues related to women s negotiations with the patriarchal underpinnings of GBV the role of the law and history in the perpetuation of GBV the complementary role of culture and faith to legal protection against GBV and access to justice for women and girls In doing so the book exposes understandings and expressions of GBV as well as methodologies and indigenous initiatives to prevent it through local viable solutions The book thus challenges the normalisation of GBV in the Global South Providing concrete and culturally relevant suggestions for challenging ingrained models of gender understandings of violence in the Global South this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Development Studies Gender Studies Women s Studies Violence and Abuse Studies Human Rights Criminal Law and Socio Legal Studies Honour-Based Violence and Forced Marriages Clara Rigoni, 2022-08-12 In the last 20 years the related phenomena of honour based violence and forced marriages have received increasing attention at the international and European level Punitive responses towards this type of violence have been adopted including ad hoc criminalisation and legislation containing direct references to the concepts of honour culture and tradition However criminal law based responses present several shortcomings and have often disregarded the specific needs that victims of such crimes might encounter This book examines the possibility of using alternative programmes to address cases of honour based violence and forced marriages After reviewing previous existing literature it presents new empirical data Introducing a case study from the United Kingdom the book recalls the debate on Sharia Councils and the Muslim Arbitration Tribunal but examines instead other community based secular programmes By comparison a study from Norway on the work of the National Mediation Agency and the so called Cross Cultural Transformative Mediation model is investigated as part of a larger multi agency approach Ultimately in an attempt to reconcile pluralism and the rule of law the book proposes effective ways to tackle honour crimes based on cooperation and individualisation of the proceedings and capable of improving women s access to justice and reducing secondary victimisation The book will be essential reading for researchers and academics in Law Criminology Sociology and Anthropology and for policy makers and practitioners working with honour based violence cases Collections of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin State Historical Society of Wisconsin, 1918 Vol 1 includes a memoir of Dr Draper and the early records of the Society 1849 54 Understanding Domestic Violence as a Gender-based Human Rights Violation Jurgita Bukauskaite, 2023-04-14 Examining the prevalent issue of domestic violence this book breaks down the reasons behind the ineffectiveness of existing human rights instruments and the gaps in current legal systems failing those in need Through a variety of key case studies it reveals significant gaps in the legal conceptualisation of domestic violence between human rights standards on the one hand and the national legal systems examined those of Ireland and Lithuania on the other The book reveals that contrary to gender based universal human rights approaches and despite recent legislative reforms the legal concept of domestic violence is gender blind It fails to capture gender based empirical realities on the ground rendering national legal systems devoid of an empirically informed theoretical basis for addressing the problem Despite the differences in the contextual backgrounds of the two case study countries the legislation on domestic violence is underpinned by patriarchal beliefs in both This book employs a gender based examination of the issue that will be of key interest to scholars legal practitioners civil society actors and students of feminist legal theory gender equality gender in international law gender and human rights and conceptual democracy A Complete Collection of the Treaties and Conventions, and Reciprocal Regulations at Present Subsisting Between Great Britain and Foreign Powers ...
