Leonard Maltin's

Astounding Shemonster:

I was a Cold War Monster Cynthia Hendershot, 2001 Horror films provide a guide to many of the sociological fears of the Cold War era In an age when warning audiences of impending death was the order of the day for popular nonfiction horror films provided an area where this fear could be lived out to its ghastly conclusion Because enemies and potential situations of fear lurked everywhere within the home the government the family and the very self horror films could speak to the invasive fears of the cold war era I Was a Cold War Monster examines cold war anxieties as they were reflected in British and American films from the fifties through the early sixties This study examines how cold war horror films combined anxiety over social change with the erotic in such films as Psycho The Tingler The Horror of Dracula and House of Wax A Year of Fear Bryan Senn, 2015-03-26 This eclectic overview of horror cinema offers up a collection of horror films for practically any occasion and literally every day of the year For example the author recommends commemorating United Nations Day October 24 with a screening of The Colossus of New York whose startling climax takes place at the U N Building Each day by day entry includes the movie title production year plot summary and critique along with a brief explanation of how the film fits into the history of that particular day and interesting anecdotes on the film s production Keep Watching the Skies! Bill Warren, 2009-11-30 Bill Warren s Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986 It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st Century Edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film In addition to a detailed plot synopsis full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making The book contains 273 photographs many rare 35 in color has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index This book is also available in softcover format ISBN 978 1 4766 6618 1

"Twice the Thrills! Twice the Chills!" Bryan Senn, 2019-02-28 In the mid 1950s to combat declining theater attendance film distributors began releasing pre packaged genre double bills including many horror and science fiction double features Though many of these films were low budget and low end others such as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Horror of Dracula and The Fly became bona fide classics Beginning with Universal International s 1955 pairing of Revenge of the Creature and Cult of the Cobra 147 officially sanctioned horror and sci fi double bills were released over a 20 year period This book presents these double features year by year and includes production details historical notes and critical commentary for each film American International Pictures Rob Craig, 2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries
