Astride The Farthest Star:

Astride the Farthest Star Mark Gillies,2003-10 The endless war is being fought on one of the 11 planets in their unusual solar system and the ten million remaining people of Unis know they were slowly being exterminated No one knows if one of the other planets can provide a safe haven but if they do not escape they will surely die The only space ship ever built is sent out with the last prayer of these desperate people The new planet has mere remnants of the old and dying civilizations fighting to the last while Nature is slowly repairing the environment and resurfacing the world Strange new creatures are evolving from the wastes the dead and the dying have left behind Can Tangor repair his space ship with the detritus of the past Should Tangor delay his return to help his new found friends Would it be one struggle and one disappointment after another Would Poloda s power amplifier still be operating for his return Would truth justice and the Unisian way survive
