Brandeis University Abram Leon Sachar,1995 In this engaging account the first president of Brandeis tells how many formidable obstacles to launching a new university without initial capital endowment or any hope of alumni support for at least a generation were overcome how academic goals were drafted distinguished faculty recruited and chairs endowed and how a dilapidated campus was expended into a well organized plant of some 90 buildings In this revision of the 1976 edition Abram L Sachar expands the scope of his commentary and imbues it with a critical depth and objectivity that comes from 20 additional years of active involvement in the service of the university

Paul as a Prototype and Entrepreneur of Christian Identity Vuyani Stanley Sindo,2024-10-31 In this important addition to Pauline scholarship on 1 Corinthians Dr Vuyani Stanley Sindo brings fresh insight to how Paul s use of the in Christ terminology supports his argument on leadership and community Integrating social identity theory with a socio historical approach Dr Sindo examines how identity discourse is an integral part of the leadership discourse in 1 Corinthians 1 4 From this solid base he provides a close and insightful investigation of the interrelationship between leadership and identity This compelling and biblically rooted work will help Christians to understand the dangers of division within the church and how Christian leaders can overcome these divisions by reminding the community of their common identity in Christ
