English Historical Documents D.B. Horn, Mary Ransome, 2024-11-01 English Historical Documents is the most ambitious impressive and comprehensive collection of documents on English history ever published An authoritative work of primary evidence each volume presents material with exemplary scholarly accuracy Editorial comment is directed towards making sources intelligible rather than drawing conclusions from them Full account has been taken of modern textual criticism A general introduction to each volume portrays the character of the period under review and critical bibliographies have been added to assist further investigation Documents collected include treaties personal letters statutes military dispatches diaries declarations newspaper articles government and cabinet proceedings orders acts sermons pamphlets agricultural instructions charters grants guild regulations and voting records Volumes are furnished with lavish extra apparatus including genealogical tables lists of officials chronologies diagrams graphs and maps A History of Architecture on the Comparative Method for Students, Craftsmen, & Amateurs Sir Banister Fletcher, 1924 History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson, Anthony F. Janson, 2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years

A History of Architecture on the Comparative Method for the Student, Craftsman, and Amateur Banister Fletcher, Sir Banister Fletcher, 1905 British Books in Print, 1985 A History of Architecture on the Comparative Method for Students, Craftsmen, and Amateurs Sir Banister Fletcher, Banister Fletcher, 1921 Dictionary of Architecture and Building Construction Nikolas Davies, Erkki Jokiniemi, 2008-06-19

With more than 20 000 words and terms individually defined the Dictionary offers huge coverage for anyone studying or working in architecture construction or any of the built environment fields The innovative and detailed cross referencing system allows readers to track down elusive definitions from general subject headings Starting from only the vaguest idea of the word required a reader can quickly track down precisely the term they are looking for The book is illustrated with stunning drawings that provide a visual as well as a textual definition of both key concepts and subtle differences in meaning Davies and Jokiniemi s work sets a new standard for reference books for all those interested in the buildings that surround us To browse the book and to see how this title is an invaluable resource for both students and professionals alike visit www.architectsdictionary.com

The Gentleman's Magazine Library George Laurence Gomme, 1894 Historic Floors Jane Fawcett, 2007-06-01 This is the first book in the UK to be devoted to historic floors It introduces an important and largely neglected subject and considers conservation methods in a European context It traces the history of some of the great floors of Europe from the fourth century B C and outlines the development of mosaic tiles marble and parquetry floors in secular buildings The early Christian pavements in basilicas temples and cathedrals the creation of medieval tiles ledger stones and monumental brasses their destruction by iconoclasts and re creation during the Gothic Revival are also discussed Leading authorities archaeologists architects and archivists consider the latest methods of recording and repairing cathedral floors including those of cathedrals country houses the monumental tiled pavements of the Palace of Westminster and other public buildings Management policies to protect outstanding floors in over visited sites are considered and historic features particularly at risk are identified Urgent action is recommended to contain the damage caused by the dramatic increase in tourism throughout Europe

Summerson and Hitchcock Frank E. Salmon, 2006 Publisher description English Historical Documents: 1714-1783, ed. by D. B. Horn and M. Ransome David Charles Douglas, 1957 Ecclesiology Frank Alexander Milne, 1894 Art History Marilyn Stokstad, 2005 Marilyn Stokstad s landmark survey has been thoroughly revised and updated with heavily reworked sections on Renaissance Baroque and Modern art as well as a completely new design and larger and more numerous illustrations

The American Architect and Building News, 1892 Art in England Sara N. James, 2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons Adult
