childhood to early modern reading cultures by drawing together the fields of childhood studies early modern literature and the history of reading Analysing literary representations of children as readers in a range of genres including ABCs prayer books religious narratives romance anthologies school books drama translations and autobiography alongside evidence of the reading experiences of those defined as children in the period it explores the production of different categories of child readers Focusing on the good child reader the youth as consumer ways of reading as a boy and as a girl and the retrospective recollection of childhood reading it sheds new light on the ways in which childhood and reading were understood and
