Sketches from a Hunter's Album (A Sportsman's Sketches) Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev,2020-05-20 On a visit to the Zhizdrinsky district in search of sport I met in the fields a petty proprietor of the Kaluga province called Polutikin and made his acquaintance He was an enthusiastic sportsman it follows therefore that he was an excellent fellow He was liable indeed to a few weaknesses he used for instance to pay his addresses to every unmarried heiress in the province and when he had been refused her hand and house broken hearted he confided his sorrows to all his friends and acquaintances and continued to shower offerings of sour peaches and other raw produce from his garden upon the young lady s relatives he was fond of repeating one and the same anecdote which in spite of Mr Polutikin s appreciation of its merits had certainly never amused anyone he admired the works of Akim Nahimov and the novel Pinna he stammered he called his dog Astronomer instead of however said howsomever and had established in his household a French system of cookery the secret of which consisted according to his cook s interpretation in a complete transformation of the natural taste of each dish in this artiste s hands meat assumed the flavour of fish fish of mushrooms macaroni of gunpowder to make up for this not a single carrot went into the soup without taking the shape of a rhombus or a trapeze But with the exception of these few and insignificant failings Mr Polutikin was as has been said already an excellent fellow On the first day of my acquaintance with Mr Polutikin he invited me to stay the night at his house Taken from Sketches from a Hunter s Album written by Ivan Turgenev
