A Litany Of Friends:

A Litany of Friends Dudley Randall,1998 The Jewish Expositor and Friend of Israel ,1823 Includes the Proceedings of the London Society for Promoting Christianity Amongst the Jews Friendship and its Discourses in the Seventeenth Century Cedric C. Brown,2016-11-03 Cedric C Brown combines the study of literature and social history in order to recognize the immense importance of friendship bonds to early modern society Drawing on new archival research he acknowledges a wide range of types of friendship from the intimate to the obviously instrumental and sees these practices as often co terminous with gift exchange Failure to recognize the inter connected range of a friendship spectrum has hitherto limited the adequacy of some modern studies of friendship often weighted towards the intimate or gendered related issues This book focusses both on friendships represented in imaginative works and on lived friendships in many textual and material forms in an attempt to recognize cultural environments and functions In order to provide depth and coherence case histories have been selected from the middle and later parts of the seventeenth century Nevertheless many kinds of bond are recognized as between patron and client mentor and pupil within the family within marriage in courtship or according to fashionable refined friendship theory Both humanist and religious values systems are registered and friendships are configured in cross gendered and same sex relationships Theories of friendship are also included Apart from written documents the range of texts extends to keepsakes pictures funerary monument and memorial garden features Figures discussed at length include Henry More and the Finch Conway family John Evelyn Jeremy Taylor Elizabeth Carey Mordaunt John Milton Charles Diodati Cyriac Skinner Dorothy Osborne Temple William Temple Lord Arlington Sir Orlando Bridgeman and Katherine Phillips and her circle especially Anne Owen Trevor and Sir Charles Cotterell Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson,2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randall s unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans Friendship Reconsidered P. E. Digeser,2016-09-06 In the history of Western thought friendship s relationship to politics is checkered Friendship was seen as key to understanding political life in the ancient world but it was then ignored for centuries Today friendship has again become a desirable framework for political interaction In Friendship Reconsidered P E Digeser contends that our rich and varied practices of friendship multiply and moderate connections to politics Along the way she sets forth a series of ideals that appreciates friendship s many forms and its dynamic relationship to individuality citizenship political and legal institutions and international relations Digeser argues that as a set of practices bearing a family resemblance to one another friendship calls our attention to the importance of norms of friendly action and the mutual recognition of motive Focusing on these attributes clarifies the place of self interest and duty in friendship and points to its compatibility with the pursuit of individuality She shows how friendship can provide islands of stability in a sea of citizen strangers and in a delegitimized political environment a bridge between differences She also explores how political and legal institutions can both undermine and promote friendship Digeser then looks to the positive potential of international friendships in which states mutually strive to protect the just character of one another s institutions and policies Friendship s repertoire of motives and manifestations complicates its relationship to politics Digeser concludes but it can help us realize the limits and possibilities for generating new opportunities for cooperation

Friendship's Shadows Penelope Anderson,2012-08-06 Penelope Anderson s original study changes our understanding both of the masculine Renaissance friendship tradition and of the private forms of women s friendship of the eighteenth century and after It uncovers the latent threat of betrayal lurking within politicized classical and humanist friendship showing its surprising resilience as a model for political obligation undone and remade Incorporating authors from Cicero to Abraham Cowley and Margaret Cavendish to Mary Astell the book focuses on two extraordinary women writers the royalist Katherine Philips and the republican Lucy Hutchinson And it explores the ways in which they appropriate the friendship tradition in order to address problems of conflicting allegiances in the English Civil Wars and Restoration As Penelope Anderson suggests their writings on friendship provide a new account of women s relation to public life organized through textual exchange rather than bodily reproduction

Larcom,1892 The Life and Opinions of Maf The Dog, and of His Friend Marilyn Monroe Andrew O'Hagan,2010-12-06 Meet Maf The hilariously opinionated well read politically scrappy and complex canine companion to Marilyn Monroe In November 1960 Frank Sinatra gave Marilyn Monroe a dog His name was Mafia Honey or Maf for short Born in the household of Vanessa Bell brought to the United States by Natalie Wood s mother and given as a Christmas present to Marilyn the winter after she separated from Arthur Miller Maf was with Marilyn for the last two years of her life first in New York and then in Los Angeles and he had as much instinct for celebrity and psychoanalysis as he did for Liver Treat with a side order of National Biscuits Marylin took him to meet President Kennedy and to Hollywood restaurants to department stores to interviews and to Mexico for her divorce Through Maf s eyes we see an altogether original and wonderfully clever portrait of the woman behind the icon and the dog behind the woman The Roman question, in letters to a friend, by an aged
