Miss Man? Linguaging Gendered Bodies Giuseppe Balirano, 2019-01-22 This volume draws together contributions containing original research on a number of linguistic and semiotic understandings of gender in the context of current debates about gender non conforming people and diverse ways of doing masculinities It contests the constraints stereotypes and prejudices concerning gender nonconformity by sparking academic inquiry possibly leading to social change The book explores various gender non conforming tropes as they apply either to same sex related desires identities and practices or to other dimensions of gender non normative experiences such as weak or socially perceived as unacceptable representations of manliness The volume demonstrates that language matters in the everyday experience of gender diversity beyond traditional gender binarism By modelling some of the approaches that are now being explored in linguistic and gender studies and by addressing language use over a range of diamesic diastratic and diatopic contexts all contributors here discuss cogent issues in language and gender

Voices of Negritude in Modernist Print Carrie Noland, 2015-04-28 Carrie Noland approaches Negritude as an experimental text based poetic movement developed by diasporic authors of African descent through the means of modernist print culture Engaging primarily the works of Aimé Césaire and Léon-Gontran Damas Noland shows how the demands of print culture alter the personal voice of each author transforming an empirical subjectivity into a hybrid textual entity that she names after Theodor Adorno an aesthetic subjectivity This aesthetic subjectivity transmitted by the words on the page must be actualized performed reiterated and created anew by each reader at each occasion of reading Lyric writing and lyric reading therefore attenuate the link between author and phenomenalized voice Yet the Negritude poem insists upon its connection to lived experience even as it emphasizes its printed form Ironically a purely formalist reading would have to ignore the ways formal and not merely thematic elements point toward the poem's own conditions of emergence Blending archival research on the historical context of Negritude with theories of the lyric voice Noland argues that Negritude poems present a challenge to both form based deconstructive theories and identity based theories of poetic representation Through close readings she reveals that the racialization of the author places pressure on a lyric regime of interpretation obliging us to reconceptualize the relation of author to text in poetries of the first person     Chine Moderne,
