Coffey, 1997 Stanley Kramer who proudly calls himself the most frequently picked producer in movie history has directed or produced such classics of the American cinema as Guess Who's Coming to Dinner High Noon On the Beach The Defiant Ones Death of a Salesman The Caine Mutiny and It's a Wonderful Life. Van Johnson Ronald L. Davis, 2009-09-28 Van Johnson's dazzling smile shock of red hair and suntanned freckled cheeks made him a movie star icon. Among teenaged girls in the 1940s he was popularized as the bobbysoxer's heartthrob. He won the nation's heart too by appearing in a series of blockbuster war films A Guy Named Joe Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo Weekend at the Waldorf and Battleground. Perennially a leading man opposite June Allyson Esther Williams Judy Garland and Janet Leigh he rose to fame radiating the sunshine image. Metro Goldwyn Mayer chose for him that of an affable wholesome boy next door. Legions of adoring moviegoers were captivated by this idealized persona that generated huge box office profits for the studio. However Johnson's off screen life was not so sunny. His mother had rejected him in childhood and he lived his adult life dealing with sexual ambivalence. A marriage was arranged with the ex wife of his best friend the actor Keenan Wynn. During the waning years of Hollywood's Golden Age she and Johnson lived amid the glow of Hollywood's A crowd. Yet their private life was charged with tension and conflict. Although morose and reclusive by nature Johnson maintained a happy go lucky facade even among co workers who knew him as a congenial dedicated professional. Once free of the golden boy stereotype he became a respected actor assigned stellar roles in such acclaimed films as State of the Union Command Decision The Last Time I Saw Paris and The Caine Mutiny. With the demise of the big studios Johnson returned to the stage where he had begun his career as a song and dance man. After this he appeared frequently in television shows performed in nightclubs and became the legendary darling of older audiences on the dinner playhouse circuit. Johnson 1916-2008 spent his post Hollywood years living in solitude in New York City. This solid thoroughly researched biography traces the career and influence of a favorite star and narrates a fascinating sometimes troubled life story. Saul Bass Jan-Christopher Horak, 2014-10-09
