A Love Foretold:

A Love Foretold Suzanne DeYoung,2003 Chronicle of a Love Foretold Monu Tamang,2015 Chronicle of a Love Foretold Thanh Dinh,2025-09-27 Chronicle of a Love Foretold is a hauntingly tender coming of age novel about two boys whose love survives distance silence and the cruelties of growing up even as it nearly destroys them Dong is the son of Vietnamese immigrants in Mississauga bright dutiful and carrying burdens far heavier than a teenager should bear At school he s mocked for his name his heritage his silence At home he suffocates under the expectations of parents who mistake sacrifice for love What no one knows is that Dong is also gay and that the one spark that makes life bearable is Simon the boy with the easy smile the basketball star who once made him believe that kindness could be more than pity that love could exist even for someone like him For a while Dong and Simon are inseparable Simon becomes the fire to Dong s frozen solitude and Dong the quiet refuge from Simon s loud glittering world But when Simon s mother discovers that their bond is more than friendship the illusion shatters Simon s family moves away and Dong is left behind with only his loneliness and the letters he keeps writing never knowing if they will be read never daring to hope for a reply Years later on the cusp of adulthood Dong is given a chance to see Simon again A party invitation A scheme crafted with his two loyal friends Ames and Lizzie who are willing to risk everything so he can risk one night Behind his mother s back across the guarded thresholds of class and family Dong sets out for Oakville his heart clinging to the hope that love can be resurrected But love is never simple When Dong finally stands before Simon again the confrontation brings both longing and hurt why did Simon never answer Why carry the letters unopened in a locked box all this time In Simon s eyes Dong sees the same hunger the same fear the same unspoken need Yet between them lies not only the distance of years but the weight of silence misunderstanding and choices made by others Told with aching lyricism and raw intensity Chronicle of a Love Foretold unfolds in fragments of memory secret letters and fleeting nights that feel like lifetimes It is a story about first love how it saves how it scars how it endures in spite of everything It captures the contradictions of youth the recklessness and the hesitation the yearning for freedom and the fear of losing what little we have This novel is also a meditation on identity and inheritance how growing up between cultures twists the simplest act of love into rebellion how silence can be both shield and prison and how forgiveness is often the hardest lesson to learn Dong s perspective reveals the crushing loneliness of the child who is always the adult while Simon s silence hides a vulnerability that will one day demand to be heard Their story is one of absence as much as presence of what is said in a look or a touch when words cannot cross the divide Chronicle of a Love Foretold is for anyone who has ever carried a secret too heavy for their years who has ever written letters they were too afraid to send who has ever loved someone so deeply that time distance and silence could not erase them It is a novel about survival and tenderness about the small rebellions of choosing happiness in a world that insists you have no right to it Above all it is about the miracle and the cost of loving someone foretold or not when the world would rather you did not A Love Foretold John Kruse,2015-09-01
