Pennec and Manuel Jo o Ramos which was published in Lisbon in 2008 They are also the editors of this English version The History of Ethiopia is an essential source for several areas of study from the history of the Catholic missions in that country and the relations between the European religious orders to the history of art and religions from the history of geographical exploration to the ideological contextualization of the Ethiopian kingdom from material culture to Abyssinian political and territorial administration and from an analysis of local circumstances to changes in human ecology in the Horn of Africa and the Indian Ocean It is a repository of empirical knowledge on the political geography religion customs flora and fauna of Ethiopia It combines travel narrative with a historico ethnographic monograph and is a chronicle of the activities of Jesuit missionaries in their Ethiopian mission It also reworks a wide variety of documents including the first translations into a European language of a number of Ethiopian literary texts from royal chronicles to hagiographies It complements other early accounts of Ethiopia by Ludovico de Varthema Francisco Alvares Castanhoso Bermudez Arnold von Harff Manoel de Almeida Bahrey Alessandro Zorzi Jer nimo Lobo and V clav Prutky all published by The Hakluyt Society Ancient history, by J. Jones,Elizabeth Monroe,1970 A History of Ethiopia, Nubia & Abyssinia Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge,1928 A History of Addis Ababa from Its Foundation in 1886 to 1910 Peter P. Garretson,1974 This thesis traces aspects of the political economic and religious history of Addis Ababa from 1886 to 1910 It is based largely on documentary material both Ethiopian and European but also depends on oral information As a city it was unique in Africa because of the absence of an imposed European direction of its development and as a result it grew ad hoc influenced by both Ethiopian and foreign concepts of an urban community From the beginnings Emperor Menilek completely dominated the political and administrative machinery of the capital but during his illnesses many of his responsibilities were perforce delegated to his closest associates who exercised their powers largely through the organisation of the Imperial Palace The bureaucracy became increasingly civilian in its personnel rather than military especially after the Battle of Adwa Furthermore since Addis Ababa was also the capital of the empire the city and its administrators played not only a local but also an imperial role The economic influence of the capital was even more pronounced where again the Emperor was more important than any other individual in the land and under his watchful eye foreigners dominated the import and export trade while Christians wrested the overall control of trade in the Empire from the Muslims Yet evangelically the church was rarely very energetic in the capital although its influence was pervasive While many historians have seen Menilek s reign as a period of significant innovation and modernisation this thesis regards that as an exaggerated claim For when closely examined the modernisation of even the capital was never very impressive although it was the acknowledged centre of foreign influence Nonetheless the capital did show itself to be the main point for the diffusion of the few modernisations that were introduced into the country from the 1880s to 1910 A History of Ethiopia in Pictures Geoffrey C.
