Valentine's Day

History of Valentine's Day

The name is said to be derived from the name of a young boy, and says of the man's character that he was a very kind and generous to his friends and a true lover. He was a young man who lived in the town of Valentia in the Roman province of Britain. He was a Christian and his name was written in the list of the names of the saints who were martyred in the year 270. He was a young man who was very kind and generous to his friends and a true lover. He was a Christian and his name was written in the list of the names of the saints who were martyred in the year 270.
