

HOLIDAY TRADITIONS

Late Christmas Eve or early Christmas Day families will have their Christmas meal called Réveillon. They will have 13 different deserts including red candy apples called pomme d'amour or apples of love.

Color the candy as the apple red.

Traditionally families would burn a piece of cherry wood during the season. It would make their home smell so nice and bring good luck to the family. This is called a Yule Log or bûche de Noël. Today many families also have a Yule Log cake as a dessert too.

Color the yule log and decorate the fireplace.

Many people in France love to decorate. Homes and businesses have colorful lights, wreaths, and trees. The trees are decorated with ribbons, glass baubles, tinsel, and foil covered chocolates. Many buildings will do son-et-lumière or illuminations on them. This is where they project images and videos onto them telling a story.
