A Human Apostolate:

A human apostolate: theology and education for Kevin O'Shea, 1971 Laypeople Into Action Joseph Cardijn, 2018-01-01 A reprint of Cardijn's classic 1964 Laymen into Action now titled Laypeople into Action. This seminal work has been for many years the principal introduction to the Jocist movements and the Jocist method of See Judge Act, the review of life method. The Jocist See Judge Act were to become key words in various documents from Vatican II due to the influence of Cardijn and others associated with him and his work in the Jocists movements who wrote or contributed in some way to some of the key documents from Vatican II. Born in Belgium, ordained in 1906, Cardijn was nine years old when the papal encyclical Rerum Novarum was released. His life can be seen as a brilliant application of the principles of that social document. He dedicated himself to the working class and especially to young workers whom he saw leading degraded and dechristianised lives in the industrial lives in the industrial society of Northern Belgium. Cardijn established the Young Christian Workers (YCW) movement, an international movement in the early part of this century. His sound apostolic theology has provided inspiration and guidance for the YCW and for other apostolic movements including the YCS and TYCS. Laypeople into Action is a collection of writings and speeches by Cardijn explaining his conception of the person and their mission, methods of formation, Cardijn's hopes for the future and his understanding of the Church in the modern world. There is solid food for thought here for those actively engaged in the lay apostolate, giving a detailed outline of a theology of the laity, a theology of mission for the laypeople and for priests, the role of priest in forming lay leaders, a foundational document on the how and why of lay formation, formation through like to like and the importance and role in the Church and society of international movements of laypeople such as the YCW and the YCS. The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1963 Christian Ministry in the Divine Milieu Maldari, SJ, Donald, C., 2019-03-27 Fr Maldari offers a vision of Christian ministry as a community in which each member actively participates in fostering creation's evolution toward fulfillment. While ministry is ultimately cooperating with God in furthering the process of creation to its fulfillment in salvation, it also humbly recognizes human limitation and dependence upon the Holy Spirit. Discerning Vocations to the Apostolic Life, the Contemplative Life, and the Eremitic Life Marie Theresa Coombs, Francis Kelly Nemeck, 2018-09-25 Throughout the spiritual journey, God's love engenders within every Christian active, contemplative, and solitary inclinations. Consequently, each person wants to do some good, to have a basic receptivity to God, and at times to be alone with God. As life unfolds, God's love also calls forth within a person an overriding attraction toward one of those three orientations which in due course impels the individual toward a corresponding vocational lifestyle: an apostolic life, a contemplative life, or an eremitic life. In this book, the authors identify the core features of those three vocational lifestyles. In light of each vocational core, they then discuss an ensemble of signs and patterns that point to an authentic calling from God. This study offers wisdom and insight to those pondering the mystery of their personal vocations, to those discerning their vocational direction.
