A Hunters Africa:

Into Africa Wayne P. Johnson, 2018-10-21 When was the last time you thought of doing something for the first time Into Africa a hunter s safari was written about and for a first time African safari goer with the sense of wonder that only comes with first times It guides the reader through the preparations required for a successful safari It then takes you afield on a 12 day adventure sharing the disappointments surprises exhilaration setbacks and elation of being on safari in Africa in what Professional Hunter and best selling American author Peter Hathaway Capstick referred to as the greatest adventure remaining on Earth

Hunting Africa Gerhard Swan, Pieter Smit, Dirk Botes, 2000 A book that covers the various aspects of hunting in Africa

A Hunter's Wanderings in Africa (Illustrated) Frederick Courteney Selous, 2014-04-15 The Boone and Crockett Club has brought back to life Frederick Courteney Selous epic African adventure in a meticulously remastered high quality paperback edition Follow noted adventurer Selous as he spends nine years amongst the game of the far interior of South Africa as a professional hunter beginning in 1871 at the young age of 20 In his preface he notes my pages are naturally chiefly devoted to the ferae naturae amongst which I have been constantly living Some of my conclusions with regard to lions rhinoceroses or other animal may differ from those arrived at by other men equally competent to give an opinion but at all events they are the result of a long personal experience of the beasts themselves and have not been influenced in any way by the often unreliable stories of old hunters I have only to add that in the following pages I have done my best to express myself in plain intelligible English and if I have not succeeded in this respect as well as I could wish I trust that my shortcomings will be leniently judged when it is remembered that the last nine years of my life have been passed amongst savages during which time I have not undergone the best training for a literary effort Selous delivers with a very entertaining and informative manuscript that will delight hunters adventurers and sportsmen of today A Hunter s Wanderings in Africa is a part of the B C Classics series launched in 2012 by the Boone and Crockett Club Each book in the series was authored by a member of B C in the late 1800s or early 1900s and was hand selected by a committee of vintage hunting literature experts Readers will be taken back to a time when hunting trips didn t happen over a weekend but were adventures spanning weeks months even years

Safari 101 Hunting Africa: the Ultimate Adventure David L. Brown, 2012-04-01 Mbogo the Black Death which manifests itself in the African Cape buffalo now stood less than 12 feet away from me The cow and calf were too close for me to have time to be scared I would only have time to react on instinct if they came closer That is the type of excitement that every hunter dreams of and it is still possible in Africa today It is also one that I was fortunate enough to experience without any permanent ill effects Eighty percent or more of American hunters think that Africa is too expensive or off limits and that they will never have a chance to experience their own up close and personal adventure in the African bushveld Safari 101 proves just the opposite Safari 101 is written for the hunter that has always considered Africa out of reach someone who has a spark of desire just waiting to be fanned into a flame American hunters spend thousands of dollars every year hunting at home Almost none of them know that for the price of a guided elk hunt in the western United States they can take an African Safari The myths of being too expensive and too difficult are firmly entrenched in many hunters minds Safari 101 has forty six hints dispersed throughout 11 chapters and proves these myths false Personal experiences are used to illustrate the value of each hint and to make each one easy to remember Safari 101 takes the author s experiences and what he learned from professional hunters and outfitters and puts the information in a logical progression that is entertaining as well as informative Safari 101 will help fan the spark into a flame

A Hunter's Wanderings in Africa Frederick Courteney Selous,2013-12-17 A narrative of nine years spent amongst the game of the far interior of South Africa containing accounts of explorations beyond the Zambesi on the river Chobe and in the Matabele and Mashuna countries with full notes upon the natural history and present distribution of all the large mammalia

A Hunter's Africa Gordon Cundill,1998

A Hunter's Wanderings in Africa Frederick Selous,2017-10-23 Selous is the most famous hunter in all Africa THE AMERICAN Since the days of Baldwin there has not been published a book on South African sporting which equals in value and interest the volume brought out by Mr Selous ACADEMY Frederick Courteney Selous 1851 1917 a British explorer officer hunter and conservationist famous for his exploits in Southeast Africa His real life adventures inspired Sir H Rider Haggard to create the fictional Allan Quatermain character Selous was also a friend of Theodore Roosevelt Cecil Rhodes and Frederick Russell Burnham He was pre eminent within a select group of big game hunters that included Abel Chapman and Arthur Henry Neumann With but very few exceptions Selous was the last of a long line of oldfashioned pioneer hunters of African big game By long odds he was the most famous and conspicuous man of his kind He lived and hunted from the period of the big calibre smoothbore elephant gun that he loaded at the muzzle with a handful of powder as he ran at full speed up through the 577 English express rifle of the 70 s to the highly finished Mannlicher of small calibre and tremendous power In 1881 Selous published his book A Hunter s Wanderings in Africa Being a Narrative of Nine Years Spent Amongst the Game of the Far Interior of South Africa His book as a matter of course abounds in hunting stories of the lion elephant rhino and as these are well told and only just sufficiently flavoured with sporting slang to give them an air of reality or local colour they are quite as likely to interest stay at home readers as sportsmen We need hardly say that Mr Selous was a successful sportsman who made a good thing out of the ivory which he carried away as his spoils The hunting of big game demands of its devotees many sacrifices The hunter must be prepared to endure many and varied hardships in the pursuance of his vocation Hunger thirst fatigue the rigors of climate the scorching sun by day the fever laden mists of night these and many other trials must he encounter if he would taste to the full the joys of the hunter s life Going to South Africa when he was 19 Selous travelled from the Cape of Good Hope to Matabeleland which he reached early in 1872 and where according to his own account he was granted permission by Lobengula King of the Ndebele to shoot game anywhere in his dominions From then until 1890 with a few brief intervals spent in England Selous hunted and explored over the then little known regions north of the Transvaal and south of the Congo Basin shooting elephants and collecting specimens of all kinds for museums and private collections His travels added greatly to the knowledge of the country now known as Zimbabwe He made valuable ethnological investigations and throughout his wanderings often among people who had never previously seen a white man he maintained cordial relations with the chiefs and tribes winning their confidence and esteem notably so in the case of Lobengula In 1890 Selous entered the service of the British South Africa Company at the request of magnate Cecil Rhodes acting as guide to the pioneer expedition to Mashonaland Over 400 miles of road were constructed through a country of forest mountain and swamp and in two and a half months Selous took the column safely to its destination He then went east to Manica concluding arrangements which brought the country there under British control Coming to England in December 1892 he was awarded the Founder s Medal of the Royal Geographical Society in recognition of his extensive explorations and surveys
