A Journey To Wisdom:

Wisdom For The Journey Odella Glenn, 2012-06-26 Wisdom for the Journey culminates years of periodic miscellaneous writing My desire to write spills over from my love for reading Between reading fascinating books and creating writing projects I began to say Someday I ll write a book Someday dragged on into years I finally chose a book title and began to write Pages of dated manuscript filed away in folders attest to my periodic bouts of writing Years go by without a completed manuscript It seems like the write a book dream had faded Then one day when I least expect it the write a book dream returns resuscitated and stronger than ever I hear a voice in my spirit say You have a book books to write before you sleep You must begin to write now Immediately I am moved to start over again and to forget the manuscript I had toyed around with for so long Wisdom for the Journey is the title that erupts from that voice With it comes a mandate Go all the way this time on to a published book Suddenly my self talk is activated and I say to myself Here I go again back to the writing track How many times have I been here before I must not allow history to repeat itself again When the self talk stops I realize that I need some way to ensure that I stay on course keep procrastination away and finish the book this time The idea floods my mind that making a writing vow to God would give me assurance I search the Bible for wisdom on making vows Many people of the Bible have made them Some of their vows have been foolishly made and produced unfavorable consequences The eleventh chapter of Judges records such a vow Jephthah a great warrior made a vow that results in the death of his only child Not wanting to make a mistake I search the scriptures for more wisdom Scriptures teach that vows are voluntary but very serious carry as much force as a written contract and are unbreakable Deut 23 21 23 Wisdom s bottom line is If you make a vow to God you must pay it The Lord demands it There are no excuses and no exceptions I carefully consider the biblical cautions and warnings about making a vow I prayerfully conclude that for me a vow is the assurance I need for getting the book finished So I make this vow to God Every day that you allow me to live I will write for at least one hour The writing sessions will continue daily until I have a completed manuscript ready for publishing Making that vow is the beginning of Wisdom for the Journey A few months into the writing sessions painful arthritis and carpal tunnel pain attack my hands and wrists I begin to think that its okay to quit now But I recognize that voice as Satan with a buyout package My response to him is Get behind me Satan You must have lost your mind to suggest that I break my vow to God I recite biblical scriptures for strength and courage Galatians 6 9 reminds me that in due season we shall reap if we faint not In the meantime wearing arthritic gloves and carpal tunnel wrist braces I continue to write as I seek more wisdom I apply Romans 4 17 to the situation that says Call those things which be not as though they were And the wisdom of Job 22 28 that says Thou shall also decree a thing and it shall be established unto thee So believing and trusting God I pray Then I declare and decree that As I continue to write the manuscript my hands are healed and strengthened and I am anointed and empowered to finish writing the book The daily writing sessions continue as planned the manifestation takes place as decreed and Wisdom for the Journey is completed fulfilling the writing vow I made to God

A Gift From The Journey Katherine Moore,2013-04-19 This book is from the musings in my personal reflective blog A Gift From The Journey In my musings it is my hope that the reader might find one aspect of my musings helpful in their lives In life we can feel that we are alone in our experiences It is my experience that there is always someone else that my have had a similar journey The sense of isolation is lifted when we know that we are not the only one on any given path In my musings I am often struck by how many similar themes that have happened in my life Others have also shared some of those experiences themes I am grateful for the many paths on my journey and I hope that you will enjoy accompanying me on my journey I have received many gifts in my life There have been many individuals who have touched my spirit and in that moment my life was changed In my life the bridge builders that I have known are responsible for much of my success Without them I would have been blind when a new path opened I have a personal belief that whether we have a positive moment in life or a negative moment in life that each moment becomes our teacher It is in the transcending of these moments that our greatest gift of wisdom becomes our blessing I hope that you enjoy this journey with me
