A Lasting Impression A Love Story:

Until You, Who? A love story. Christian Filostrat, 2024-02-07 Sister Immanuel recounts her life and the life of her great love Sister M ria from their childhood in Belgium to their service as Catholic nuns in colonial Belgian Congo in this mesmerizing psychological drama With my head on the Wembo Nyama made pillows I smile at the ceiling I love the sound of the rain on the roof My smile is also to deride all the efforts to reject nature Neither bound breasts nor convents ramparts kept desire at bay Rules cannot invalidate lust meanness or all the other traits we are saddled with Blessed however is she who is saddled with love The Bantus resented our attempt at being parents to them more than they did Leopold s brutality toward their fathers Brutality you see is forthright It leaves no doubt as to where the brutalized stand It is predictable Paternalism was something else It had the Bantus wondering what we would subject them to next They became restless and guarded The Mbulamatadis responded with disjointed colonial policies But by then they had about as much credibility as the dunce who challenges reason The post war policies became exercises in contortion as the Mbulamatadis didn t know which way to turn as they groped to maintain control of the colony Violence was easy to abide by as was dehumanization which had set in long ago The Mbulamatadis wanted to punish the Bantus for daring to question their authority over them and they drove themselves to frenzies in the rush to dehumanize the Bantus better to curse accuse them of all evils and maintain control Practicality should have inhibited these behaviors but it did not The Second World War had brought water to the mill of revolution in colonies everywhere From Asia to Africa the colonial world was abuzz with change Before the war Belgian colonists the Mbulamatadis concerned themselves with the climate their club which cut of meat was most appropriate at what reception and of course how best to protect themselves against Bantu diseases Life in the colony was simple then Subsequently I watched the unraveling take place the blissful illusion dissipate the specific time when it all changed and the end coming on the galloping pale horse During this time those who believed that ruling over the center of the Dark Continent gave life meaning were particularly hard hit Before the war they had their way with the Bantus Afterwards they recited verses from the Bible especially the one from Genesis Perhaps they will hate us and return to us the evil that we have done unto them I heard with my own ears the wife of a colonial officer relay that message to her husband in our chapel No bad conscience ever haunted dreams the way Belgian dreams were haunted in the Congo In order to exorcise the spirit of wrongs from their colonial past they initiated campaigns of praise for all that the Mbulamatadis had brought to the Congolese The Bantus however would have none of it and as the decade of the 60s approached even the volu s felt shame for what had been inflicted on them They grieved like rape victims Colonialism would forever stain their souls When disenchantment set in there was no way to recapture the moment They were told they would have to start over again The Mbulamatadis however did not care to start over They dug in insisting that the old master servant ways be maintained at all costs with a measure of paternalism for those so inclined To be sure most of the colonialists were God forgive me lowbrow petit bourgeois at best

Petit bourgeois are loath to accept their inferior position in society so they search for others to place beneath them An African colony was the perfect venue for the petit bourgeois to elevate themselves Colonialism is a genre unto itself a grim model of presumption and the practice of dehumanization The Woman's Kingdom. A Love Story, Etc Woman, 1869

Pasolini's Lasting Impressions Ryan Calabretta-Sajder, 2020-07-07 Noted as a civil poet by Alberto Moravia Pier Paolo Pasolini was a creative and philosophical genius whose works challenged generations of Western Europeans and Americans to reconsider not only issues regarding the self but also various social concerns Pasolini's works touched and continues to inspire students scholars and intellectuals alike to question the status quo This collection of thirteen articles and two interviews evidences the on going discourse around Pasolini's lasting impressions on the new generation Pasolini's Lasting Impressions Death Eros and Literary Enterprise in the Opus of Pier Paolo Pasolini thus explores the civic poet's oeuvre in four parts poetry theatre film and culture Although the collection does not include every genre in which Pasolini wrote it addresses many some which often receive little or no attention particularly in Italian Studies of North America The underlining theme of the book death eros and literary enterprise intertwines these genres in a rather unique way allowing for inter disciplinary interpretations to Pasolini's rich opus The edited volume concludes with two artists Dacia Maraini and Ominio71's reflections on Pasolini in the 21st century In fact the cover represents a recent work on Ominio71 underscoring Pasolini's visual presence still within the Roman walls In conclusion this collection demonstrates how his works still influence contemporary Italian society and motivate intellectual dialogue through new theoretical outlooks on Pasolini's oeuvre

The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century Alister D. Inglis,2023-04-01 Love stories formed a major part of the classical short story genre in China from as early as the eighth century when men of letters began to write about romantic encounters In later centuries such stories provided inspiration for several new literary genres While much scholarly attention has been focused on the short story of both the medieval and late imperial eras comparatively little work has been attempted on the interim stage the Song and Yuan dynasties which spanned some five hundred years from the tenth to the fourteenth centuries Yet this was a crucial developmental period for many forms of narrative literature so much so that any understanding of late imperial narrative should be informed by the earlier tradition The first study of its kind in English The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century traces the development of the love story throughout this important yet overlooked era Using Tang dynasty stories as a point of comparison Alister D Inglis examines and appraises key new themes paying special attention to period hallmarks gender portrayal and textuality Inglis demonstrates that contrary to received scholarly wisdom this was a highly innovative period during which writers and storytellers laid a fertile foundation for the literature of late imperial China
