Languages other than English in Australian Higher Education Jennifer Joan Baldwin, 2019-01-29 This book researches the study of languages other than English and their place in the Australian tertiary sector Languages are discussed in the context of the histories of Australian universities and the series of reports and surveys

about languages across the second half of the twentieth century It demonstrates how changes in the ethnic mix of society are reflected in language offerings and how policies on languages have changed as a result of societal influences Also discussed is the extent to which influencing factors changed over time depending on social cultural political and economic contexts and the extent to which governments prioritised the promotion and funding of languages because of their perceived contribution to the national interest The book will give readers an understanding as to whether languages have mattered to Australia in a national and international sense and how Australia s attention to languages has been reflected in its identity and its sense of place in the world

Colonial English a glossary of Australian, Anglo-Indian, Pidgin English, West Indian, and South American words Carl Lentzner, Karl Lentzner, 1891

Practices of Proximity Katherine E. Russo, 2010-04-16
Practices of Proximity investigates the appropriation of the English language taking place in the Australian literary contact zone between an official white Australia the apparent owners of both the land and the English language and Australian Indigenous peoples Rescuing the debate from seemingly peripheral locations the empty Great Sandy Desert or the abject urban margin it insists on the complex ultimately open ended and multilateral ownership of the English language by all who inhabit the intersubjective space of literature rendering the inherited authority of who owns meaning problematical and ethically suspect Documenting the complex practices of bricolage and re lexification of a multi accentuated Australia the book invites readers to consider Australian Indigenous literature as a space from which a re routing of issues of co habitation sovereignty and being and becoming Australian might begin This interdisciplinary study of Australian Indigenous practices of appropriation ranges from texts produced during the first encounters of Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples to the work of established and rising authors such as Oodgeroo Noonuccal Jack Davis Lionel Fogarty Romaine Moreton and Kim Scott
