Allen Jack And Cottier Architecture In The Australian Context:

The Architecture of East Australia Bill MacMahon, 2001-11-29 The story of Australian architecture might be said to parallel the endeavours of Australians to adapt reconcile themselves with their home neighbours It is the story of 200 years of coming to terms with the land of adaptation insight making do Early settlers were poorly provisioned profoundly ignorant of the land richly prejudiced towards its peoples They pursued many paths over many terrains From the moist temperate region of Tasmania with heavy Palladian villas to the monsoonal north with open lightweight stilt houses the continent has induced most different regional building styles

Architecture for an Ageing Population International Association of Home and Services for the Ageing, 2014-03-14 This compilation of more than 20 outstanding projects in the areas of assisted living continuing care retirement communities and nursing homes represents the best current work designed by architects for the ever increasing population of the ageing and elderly Produced by IMAGES Publishing in association with the IAHSA

Architecture for an Ageing Population complements the successful Design for Aging series Each project is presented with photographs detailed plans and statistics illuminating the high level of research planning and community involvement that goes into these advancements in living environments for seniors This comprehensive review of architectural design trends in aged care facilities will appeal to aged care providers developers users and advocates as well as architects interior designers landscapers and other design professionals

Contemporary Australian Architecture Graham Jahn, 1994 Traces the development of new ideas in Australian architecture since 1975 and documents 45 important buildings chosen because of the ideas they embody Houses offices churches and sports stadia designed by Australian architects or by Japanese or American architects working in Australia are included The presentation is lavish abundant color photos by Scott Frances plenty of white space surrounding the text and an oversize format 10x11 5 Distributed by the U of Toronto Press Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , 150 Geoffrey London, Philip Goad, Conrad Hamann, 2017 Architect designed houses of the period 1950 65 proposed an innovative response to the social economic and climatic conditions of post war Australia At the same time they embraced the aesthetic technological and egalitarian aspirations of modern architecture

An Unfinished Experiment in Living traces the emergence of this architectural phenomenon in Australia documenting the full range of its expression from the postwar optimism of the early 1950s through to the affluence of the 1960s It is a catalogue of the most significant houses of the period It includes comprehensive plans and period photographs of 150 houses from around Australia dating from a time when the great Australian dream was the single family house This book puts forward new research founded on the premise that the most significant houses of the 1950s and 60s represent an unfinished and undervalued experiment in modern living Issues such as the open plan the changing nature of the family the embrace of advances in technology the use of the courtyard and the orientation of the house to capture sun and privacy were valuable and critical lessons This is a compelling reminder of their
