

RULES OF LAWN BOWLS

A Beginner's Guide To Lawn Bowls

STEP: 1

A coin is tossed to decide which team bowl first.

STEP: 3

The Jack is delivered. It must be at least 21 meters from the mat, and must stay out of the ditch.

STEP: 5

Teams alternate taking shots. Each member of the team will take all of their shots before the next one takes over.

STEP: 7

Any bowls that are in play can be moved by another shot, and they stay active to where they finish. This includes the jack.

STEP: 9

Once all players have finished their shots the game is scored.

STEP: 11

The winning team will get to go first on the next "end".

STEP: 2

The first bowler places the mat. It must be placed centrally.

STEP: 4

Once the jack has come to rest it is placed centrally. The jack now becomes the target.

STEP: 6

When playing any shot the player bowling must always have one foot on the mat.

STEP: 8

Any bowl that finishes in the ditch is considered out of play.

STEP: 10

The winning side gets one point for each bowl that is closer to the jack than their opponent's nearest bowl.

STEP: 12

This will be played in the opposite
