Charles Wyllys Elliott

Down To The Sea:

Down To The Sea Arthur Webster, 2012-02-17 For those who go down to sea in ships life has always been exciting but ever dangerous Brutally treated under paid and subjected to greed of the ship owners and misguided government policies that conspired to keep the seaman in a condition of poverty and near slavery Change only came about with the advent of the of the Maritime Unions and World War II But no sooner had the war ended conditions on American Merchant vessels began to revert the old ways The ship owners with Government acquiescence began to register their fleets under foreign flags in an attempt to break the power of the maritime unions This activity give rise to the continual and bloody labor disputes of the 60 s and 70 s Those prolonged lockouts and strikes were finally responsible for the virtual demise of the Merchant Marine So ended the dream for we who love the sea and had made it our lives

Down to the Sea in Submarines Dan Conley, 2024-08-20 This unique memoir charts the career of the author in the Royal Navy Submarine Service during the period 1967 to 1997 and in doing so details many of the Silent Service s remarkable achievements since the end of the Second World War And it provides a dramatic first hand account of the underwater confrontation during the Cold War between submarines of the West and the huge submarine force of the Soviet Union Dan Conley narrates the successive stages from his basic submarine training to taking command of two nuclear attack submarines but he does not demur from describing the personal and professional difficulties he encountered in this journey He sets out in detail what life was like serving onboard both diesel and nuclear submarines and in particular the book describes the British submariner s remarkable transformation from the somewhat buccaneering free spirit serving on a clapped out WW2 boat during the sunset of the British Empire to the highly professional individual who spends prolonged periods under the sea in a platform which matches the complexity of a space craft The book describes the long and difficult challenges encountered in developing effective weapon systems for the British submarine force and discusses the difficulties and shortcomings in the UK s defense procurement system a situation which still exists today Ultimately however Western technological superiority and crew proficiency enabled the submarines of the Royal and United States Navies to match those of the Soviet Union and he describes vividly the suspense and tension of underwater confrontations which might so easily have escalated to another dimension of warfare And the book sets out hitherto undisclosed details of submarine activities during the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis when the world confronted the real possibility of a massive nuclear exchange But it is not all serious content and he also offers a glimpse for the reader of many humorous situations and events of animals that found themselves under the sea in a submarine in one case during a war patrol and other moments of levity that broke the tension of serving in a highly complex and sophisticated fighting machine The Cold War era is now long past However it is evident that as the West now confronts an aggressive recidivist Russia and a more aggressive China Britain s submarine force once again will be key to the security of all its citizens This fine memoir captures vividly the key events and history of the Cold War and in doing so will open the reader's eyes to the significance and importance today of the Royal Navy Submarine Service Praise for the author's previous work Cold War Command A wonderful book full of information momentum excitement and humanity Highly recommended The Mariner's Mirror Pottery and Porcelain, from Early Times Down to the Philadelphia Exhibition of 1876 Charles Wyllys Elliott, 1878 What we have attempted has been to gather and present in a way to be easily understood the most important facts respecting Pottery and Porcelain Preface A Concordance of the Proper Names in the Holy Scriptures Thomas David Williams, 1923 Forest and Stream, 1906 The Household Book of Poetry Charles Anderson Dana, 1873 Motor Boat, 1921 Adventure, 1911 The Delineator R.
