Hertrampf,2023-11-20 The history of written Romani literature is only about 100 years old and thus Romani literatures are still being defined and consolidated At least two special features characterize this young literature on the one hand it is a multilingual diasporic world literature that often can be characterized as engaged literature and tries to deconstruct various age old stereotypes of the minority On the other hand female authors play a strikingly prominent role Female authors frequently achieve visibility with their texts on the national book markets Some authors appear in their own texts as committed feminists and or human rights activists For other authors sexuality and gender play a less prominent role in their works Additionally women often also play very central roles in texts by male authors Therefore this volume aims to explore the different facets of Romani literatures on two interrelated axes First the essays explore the status of several diverse works as transnational world literature Second the contributions examine the significance of writing as a form of social engagement and self empowerment What emerges is the observation that mainly women authors have been speaking out and standing up for their rights as women and Romnya With contributions from Oksana Marafioti Ana Bel n Mart n Sevillano Martin Shaw Kirsten von Hagen Marina Ortrud M Hertrampf Emilia Kledzik Florian Homann Paola Toninato Sidonia Bauer Lorely French Viola Parente Capkov Travel Magazine ,1916 The American Indian Magazine ,1915 A dictionary of slang, jargon & cant, by A.
