their seeking few of them knew anything about war or wanted it but when it came they volunteered as a matter of course One by one led by a love of adventure they gravitated to a special service unit called Popski s Private Army I was second in joked with them I shared their triumphs their failures and their fears I saw some of them die I loved these men and was honoured by their friendship and their faith This story should have been written long ago when the war ended It was but in a different form and never published now I have found time to rewrite it just as it happened during the years of the war Author
