Capone,2017-12-19 Every human has enormous talent and seeks to realize their full potential We all want to be unique special good and extraordinary But most of us today are not exceptional Most of us have not yet discovered and fully developed our talents and we are not contributing to society We instinctively want to fit in be normal and belong Our urge to be accepted and loved compels us to conform by adopting the attitudes of others We think and behave how our friends and family expect us to Often the attitudes and beliefs promoted by our friends and family do not facilitate individual growth They suffocate our personal development and influence decisions that often result in dissatisfaction sadness frustration anger stress and even depression and illness We become so burdened with health security and relationship issues that we have no time energy or resources to develop our talents and achieve our full potential as human beings We are caught as individuals and as a society in crises created and compounded by our strong allegiance to friends and family
