Double Voice Of Her Desire:

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible Susanne Scholz, 2020-12-31 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible brings together 37 essential essays written by leading international scholars examining crucial points of analysis within the field of feminist Hebrew Bible studies Organized into four major areas globalization neoliberalism media and intersectionality the essays collectively provide vibrant relevant and innovative contributions to the field The topics of analysis focus heavily on gender and queer identity with essays touching on African Korean and European feminist hermeneutics womanist and interreligious readings ecofeminist and animal biblical studies migration biblical studies the role of gender binary voices in evangelical egalitarian approaches and the examination of scripture in light of trans women s voices The volume also includes essays examining the Old Testament as recited in music literature film and video games The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible charts a culturally hermeneutically and exegetically cutting edge path for the ongoing development of biblical studies grounded in feminist womanist gender and queer perspectives The Double Voice of Her Desire, 2019-05-21 To the attentive listener women s texts speak with a double voice Women are quite capable of telling a conventional story reflecting the expectations of the dominant culture However at the same time they tell their own muted story Such stories are fragments of resistance and anyone who has experience of living on the margins can track them down Such was the view of Fokkeli van Dijk Hemmes 1943 1994 This is a comprehensive collection of the late scholar s groundbreaking work in feminist biblical interpretation in English translation The essays document Van Dijk Hemmes development and show how her work relates to contemporary developments in feminist thinking There is a Foreword by Mieke Bal an in memoriam by Athalya Brenner and an overview of van Dijk Hemmes extensive output of books and articles completes the volume Fokkeli van Dijk Hemmes taught Women s Studies and Old Testament at the University of Utrecht Her pioneering work of feminist interpretation tragically cut short was highly influential both inside and outside the Netherlands Translated by David E Orton CCAR Journal: The Reform Jewish Quarterly, Spring/Summer 2024, 2024-08-01 This double issue of CCAR Journal includes a new data analysis by the Reform Pay Equity Initiative a discussion of the growth of Reform Judaism in IberoAmerica a piece on disenfranchised grief in the wake of October 7 and several articles addressing the challenges of pastoral care The issue also contains new book reviews and poems Ovid's Tragic Heroines Jessica A. Westerhold, 2023-07-15 Ovid s Tragic Heroines expands our understanding of Ovid s incorporation of Greek generic codes and the tragic heroines Phaedra and Medea while offering a new perspective on the Roman poet s persistent interest in these two characters and their paradigms Ovid presents these two Attic tragic heroines as symbols of different passions that are defined by the specific combination of their gender and generic provenance Their failure to be understood and their subsequent punishment are constructed as the result of their female nature and are generically marked as tragic Ovid s masculine poetic voice by contrast is given free rein to oscillate and play with poetic possibilities Jessica A Westerhold focuses on select passages from the poems Ars Amatoria Heroides and Metamorphoses Building on existing scholarship she analyzes the dynamic nature of generic categories and codes in Ovid's poetry especially the interplay of elegy and epic Further her analysis of Ovid's reception applies the idea of the abject to elucidate Ovid's process of constructing gender and genre in his poetry Ovid's Tragic Heroines incorporates established theories of the performativity of sex gender and kinship roles to understand the continued maintenance of the normative and abject subject positions Ovid's poetry creates The resulting analysis reveals how Ovid's Phaedras and Medeas offer alternatives both to traditional gender roles and to material appropriate to a poem's genre ultimately using the tragic code to introduce a new perspective to epic and elegy

Educational Theory and Jewish Studies in Conversation Harvey Shapiro, 2013 Educational Theory and Jewish Studies in Conversation From Volozhin to Buczacz by Harvey Shapiro PhD brings together two different fields of study modern Jewish studies and contemporary educational theory to provide new theoretical frameworks for their interaction Although Jewish studies and education programs at secular universities have joined denominational and transdenominational institutions of higher learning in adopting a dual or parallel course structure there has been little scholarly attention given to the basis for doing so Shapiro provides alternative theoretical frameworks for the relationship between Jewish studies and educational theory and discusses different ways of developing and articulating these relationships between disciplines Shapiro shows what is at stake when students and faculty think and communicate together across discourses in particular between the fields of education and Jewish studies Presenting an alternative to conventional notions of interdisciplinarity this book's import extends to virtually all relationships between the humanities and professional education when these different discourses illuminate and challenge one another The Pulse of Sense Marie Chabbert, Nikolaas Deketelaere, 2022-03-30 This volume stages a series of encounters between the French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy and leading scholars of his work along four major themes of Nancy's thought sense experience existence and Christianity In doing so the volume seeks to remind readers that Nancy's sens has many meanings in French aside from those that easily carry over into English i.e everything to do with meaning and the senses it also includes the way they are conducted the direction they take the thrust or pulse in which the circulation of sense exists Faithful to this plural understanding of sens the writings collected here aim to join Jean Luc Nancy in the process of making sense that animates his thinking rather than to deliver a definitive summary of his position on any given issue They are conceived of as notes along the way documenting encounters as moments of re-direction and recording the pulse of sense that animates them In that spirit Nancy himself has provided each contribution with an echo in which he in turn responds to each author and thereby continues their mutual encounter Aside from these echoes this volume includes an original essay in which Nancy reflects upon the international trajectory of his thinking a trajectory that is to be and undoubtedly will be continued in many different directions across and around the world The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of
