Prosecuting Slobodan Milošević Nevenka Tromp,2016-04-14 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the trial of former Serbian leader Slobodan Milo evi at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY

With the premature death of Milošević in March 2006 his trial was left unfinished. Although the traditional objectives of criminal law such as retribution, justice for victims and deterrence were not achieved, the Milošević trial archive is a significant historical resource for researchers from various fields. This book extracts details from the collection of documentary and transcript evidence that makes up the trial record, sources which would be almost impossible to extricate without an insider's guiding hand to allow readers to trace the threads of several historical narratives. The value of this methodology is particularly evident in the Milošević case as acting as his own defence counsel he responded to and interacted with almost all witnesses and evidence presented against him. By providing snapshots of the behaviour displayed by Milošević in court while conducting his defence in combination with passages of carefully selected evidence from an immense archive familiar to few scholars, this volume reveals how these trial records and trial records in general are a truly invaluable historical source. The book underlines the premise that any record of a mass atrocities trial, whether finished or unfinished, establishes a record of past events, contributes to interpretations of a historical period and influences the shaping of collective memory. This book will be of much interest to students of the Former Yugoslavia war crimes, international law, human rights, international relations and European politics.

By Kelman Out of Pessoa Doug Nufer, 2023. In 2002 Doug Nufer wrote a story narrated by a tout who proposed a novel way to beat the races. It was so absurd and ludicrous it gave him an idea. So Nufer went to Emerald Downs, home of thoroughbred racing in the Northwest. There he split himself into three characters modeled on the heteronyms of Fernando Pessoa. Using a money management plan from a James Kelman short story, Nufer gave these characters money and set them free to gamble. He returned to the track every week for a full season and his characters' heteronyms continued to bet with real money and in the name of art. At the end of the season he had pages of data in the form of a wagering diary, the outcome of a literary experiment that formed the basis of a literal experimental novel. The Gentleman's Magazine, 1879. The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press, the Trader's monthly intelligence section consists of news, foreign and domestic vital statistics, a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs.

United States of America v. Russo, 1964. The End of Analysis Mohamed Tal, 2023-07-13. This book interrogates the end of analysis in psychoanalytic thought from Freud to Lacan. It demonstrates that the notions of mourning, renunciation, liquidation of transference and traversal of fantasy cannot serve as a settlement for the castration complex, i.e. central to neurosis, but are rather prey to the castration complex itself. It shows how psychoanalysis remains incomplete as long as it has not surpassed them as fantasies sustained by psychoanalytic ideology. In other words, it argues that the analytic procedure must pull psychoanalysis out of this therapeutic tradition for it to be complete and to instigate an attempt of its renewal. The book equally revisits Freud's and Lacan's underpinnings in the Enlightenment project in order to formulate the problem of transference on proper dialectical foundations, that is, the mechanism of alienation from Descartes to Hegel, Kierkegaard's concept of anxiety as well as the concepts of authority and value in Durkheim Mauss and Marx In doing so it provides fresh insights that will appeal to practitioners as well as to scholars of psychoanalysis and philosophy     *Laws of the State of New York Passed at the ...
