If you look back at the other. The composition of the pose of the figure creates a very general sense of showing the direction of the form. Illustration No. 1 shows you how the line is formed. The end of the line along with the opposite of the human form. Some clear points for you can see in your drawing. When the arm is straight, the point ends a straight line. When you bend your arm, the tip of the line drops. The straight line becomes the end of the cylinder of the forearm. The arm created by the line between the wrist and elbow is a cylinder of the forearm in space.
