Dream Jungle:

Dream Jungle Jessica Hagedorn, 2004-09-28 One of Jessica Hagedorn's most daring novels a deft and complex tale of corruption fealty and integrity The Baltimore Sun In a Philippines of desperate beauty and rank corruption two seemingly unrelated events occur the discovery of an ancient lost tribe living in a remote mountainous area and the arrival of a celebrity studded American film crew there to make an epic Vietnam War movie But the lost tribe may be a clever hoax and the Hollywood movie seems doomed as the cast and crew continue to self destruct in a cloud of drugs and ego As the consequences of these events play out four unforgettable characters a wealthy iconoclastic playboy a woman ensnared in the sex industry a Filipino American writer and a jaded actor find themselves drawn irrevocably together in this lavish sensual portrait of a nation in crisis

Tree of Dreams Laura Resau, 2019-03-26 A beating heart A talking tree The rain forest Love Mysticism Harvest And above all chocolate Dear Coco and Leo I miss you We all miss you The whole forest misses you I hear their thanks and wishes in my dreams I hope you do too Prepare for a journey into a world filled with what so many crave the sweet savoring of a chocolate drop A drop that can melt even the most troubled realities But in this nuanced heartrending story before good can emerge there is destruction the bombarding of a people their culture heritage sacred beliefs and the very soul that drives their traditions This urgent beautiful novel takes readers into the ugly realities that surround the destruction of the Amazon rain forest and its people Acclaimed author Laura Resau shows us that love is more powerful than hatred and that by working together hope can be magically restored root and branch

The American War in Viet Nam Susan Lyn Eastman, 2017-03-28 We have been waiting for a book on war and memory about the American War in Vietnam both about the Americans and the Vietnamese in the new century of the Desert Wars of Afghanistan and Iraq Susan Lyn Eastman has fulfilled that expectation and she has done so with a study impressive in its range of topical issues texts and commentary Philip D Beidler Margaret and William Going Professor of English University of Alabama After more than four decades the Viet Nam War continues to haunt our national memory culture politics and military actions In this probing interdisciplinary study Susan Lyn Eastman examines a range of cultural productions from memorials and poetry to cinematic and fictional narratives that have tried to grapple with the psychic afterlife of traumatic violence resulting from the ill fated conflict in Southeast Asia Underpinning the book is the notion of prosthetic memory which involves memories acquired by those with no direct experience of the war such as readers and filmgoers Prosthetic memories Eastman argues refuse to relegate the war to the forgotten past and challenge the authenticity of experience thus ensuring its continued relevance to debates over America's self conception specifically her coinage of the New Vietnam Syndrome and the country's role in world affairs when it comes to contemporary military interventions With the notable exception of the Veterans Memorial in Washington Eastman's focus is on works produced from the Persian Gulf War 1990-91 through the post 9/11 War on Terror She looks not only at American representations of the war from movies like Randall Wallace's We Were Soldiers to poems by

W D Ehrhart Yusef Komunyakaa and others but also at novels by Vietnamese authors Bao Ninh and Huong Thu Duong The experiences of women figure prominently in the book Eastman devotes a chapter to the Vietnam Women s Memorial and another to Sandie Frazier s novel I Married Vietnam and Oliver Stone s film Heaven and Earth based on memoirs by Le Ly Hayslip And by examining Jessica Hagedorn s Dream Jungle a novel inspired by the filming of Apocalypse Now she considers how the war s repercussions were felt in other countries in this case the Philippines Her investigation of Vietnamese American authors Lan Cao Andrew Lam and GB Tran adds a transnational dimension to the study SUSAN LYN EASTMAN teaches in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

Transpacific Studies Janet Alison Hoskins, Viet Thanh Nguyen, 2014-08-31 The Pacific has long been a space of conquest exploration fantasy and resistance Pacific Islanders had established civilizations and cultures of travel well before European explorers arrived initiating centuries of upheaval and transformation The twentieth century with its various wars fought in and over the Pacific is only the most recent era to witness military strife and economic competition While Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim were late twentieth century terms that dealt with the importance of the Pacific to the economic political and cultural arrangements that span Asia and the Americas a new term has arisen the transpacific In the twenty first century U S efforts to dominate the ocean are symbolized not only in the Pacific pivot of American policy but also the development of a Transpacific Partnership This partnership brings together a dozen countries not including China in a trade pact whose aim is to cement U S influence That pact signals how the transpacific up to now an academic term has reached mass consciousness Recognizing the increasing importance of the transpacific as a word and concept this anthology proposes a framework for transpacific studies that examines the flows of culture capital ideas and labor across the Pacific These flows involve Asia the Americas and the Pacific Islands The introduction to the anthology by its editors Janet Hoskins and Viet Thanh Nguyen consider the advantages and limitations of models found in Asian studies American studies and Asian American studies for dealing with these flows The editors argue that transpacific studies can draw from all three in order to provide a critical model for considering the geopolitical struggle over the Pacific with its attendant possibilities for inequality and exploitation Transpacific studies also sheds light on the cultural and political movements artistic works and ideas that have arisen to contest state corporate and military ambitions In sum the transpacific as a concept illuminates how flows across the Pacific can be harnessed for purposes of both domination and resistance The anthology s contributors include geographers Brenda S A Yeoh Weiqiang Lin sociologists Yen Le Espiritu Hung Cam Thai literary critics John Carlos Rowe J Francisco Benitez Yunte Huang Viet Thanh Nguyen and anthropologists Xiang Biao Heonik Kwon Nancy Lutkehaus Janet Hoskins as well as a historian Laurie J Sears and a film scholar Akira Lippit Together these contributors demonstrate how a transpacific model can be deployed across multiple disciplines and from varied locations with scholars working from the United States Singapore Japan and England Topics include the Cold War the Chinese state U S imperialism diasporic and refugee cultures and economies national cinemas transpacific art and the view of the transpacific from Asia These varied topics are a result of the anthology s purpose in bringing scholars into conversation and illuminating how location influences the perception of the transpacific But regardless of the individual view what the essays gathered here collectively demonstrate is the energy excitement and insight that can be generated from within a transpacific framework
