Rowan,2026-01-26 Anger at small inconveniences Tears over nothing Anxiety about situations that don t warrant it Your emotions feel disproportionate irrational proof something s wrong with you But what if they re not random What if every feeling however confusing or uncomfortable contains information you ve learned to dismiss This book explores emotions not as problems to manage but as messengers worth understanding It examines why certain situations trigger outsized reactions how past experiences create present day emotional intensity and why inappropriate feelings often point to unmet needs or unprocessed experiences It reframes emotional confusion not as emotional immaturity but as disconnection from the meaning beneath the feeling Rather than teaching emotion management techniques this book helps you decode what your emotions are actually communicating It explores why you might feel nothing in moments that should matter and everything in moments that shouldn t how judgment blocks understanding and what it means to be curious about feelings instead of controlling them It s about trusting that emotions have logic even when you can t see it yet For anyone who feels hijacked by emotions they don t understand this book offers a framework for listening to feelings instead of silencing them and
