Beyond Boundaries Understanding Translation And Anthropological Discourse:

Beyond Boundaries Gisli Pálsson, 1994-05-09 Anthropology it is often argued is an art of translation Recently however social theorists have raised serious doubts about the translator's enterprise Over the last few years the human social and ecological habitat has seen spectacular developments Modern humans inhabit a global village in a very genuine sense What lessons may be learned from these developments for anthropology In Beyond Boundaries ten anthropologists from different countries address the problem of social understanding and cultural translation from different theoretical as well as ethnographic perspectives Quite appropriately given the general theme of the volume the contributors represent several different academic traditions and communities Britain Finland France Iceland Israel Japan Norway the former Soviet Union and Sweden

Beyond Boundaries Gísli Pálsson, Stanley Thorne, 1987 Beyond Writing Culture Olaf Zenker, Karsten Kumoll, 2010-05-01 Two decades after the publication of Clifford and Marcus volume Writing Culture this collection provides a fresh and diverse reassessment of the debates that this pioneering volume unleashed At the same time Beyond Writing Culture moves the debate on by embracing the more fundamental challenge as to how to conceptualise the intricate relationship between epistemology and representational practices rather than maintaining the original narrow focus on textual analysis It thus offers a thought provoking tapestry of new ideas relevant for scholars not only concerned with the ethnographic Other but with representation in general

The Routledge Handbook of Mobile Socialities Annette Hill, Maren Hartmann, Magnus Andersson, 2021-05-06 This is a state of the art survey of an emerging area of study in media communication and cultural studies mobility studies and mobile communications Mobile socialities demarcates a new area of research that captures people's various and contrary experiences of media in relation to their mobilities and socialities The chapters in this volume are written by a range of international scholars offering a comprehensive overview and source of inspiration for a diverse range of topics on the contingent practices and finite resources of people and media on the move The book demonstrates through empirical and theoretical research how mobile socialities is a generative concept for thinking through power identity and the contexts of media in public and mediated spaces work and everyday life addressing a spectrum of mobile socialities and lived politics The research and various cases make visible previously hidden or obscured social practices and allow us to rethink the meanings of mobility digital media or the home in these examples of people living within the centre and peripheries of society The Handbook establishes mobile socialities as a new area of academic enquiry ideal for advanced undergraduate students and scholars across the disciplines of media communication and cultural studies anthropology cultural geography and sociology

Translating Others (Volume 1) Theo Hermans, 2014-04-08 Both in the sheer breadth and in the detail of their coverage the essays in these two volumes challenge hegemonic thinking on the subject of translation Engaging throughout with issues of representation in a postmodern and postcolonial world Translating Others investigates the complex processes of projection recognition displacement and othering effected not only by translation practices but also by translation studies as developed in the West At the same time the volumes document the increasing awareness the the world is peopled by others who also translate often in ways radically different from and hitherto largely ignored by the modes of translating conceptualized in Western discourses The languages covered in individual contributions include Arabic Bengali Chinese Hindi Irish Italian Japanese Latin Rajasthani Somali Swahili Tamil Tibetan and Turkish as well as the Europhone literatures of Africa the tongues of medieval Europe and some major languages of Egypt s five thousand year history Neighbouring disciplines invoked include anthropology semiotics museum and folklore studies librarianship and the history of writing systems Contributors to Volume 1 Doris Bachmann Medick Cosima Bruno Ovidi Carbonell Martha Cheung G Gopinathan Eva Hung Alexandra Lianeri Carol Maier Christi Ann Marrill Paolo Rambelli Myriam Salama Carr Ubaldo Stecconi and Maria Tymoczko

The Archaeology of Etruscan Society Vedia Izzet,2007-12-13 The late sixth century was a period of considerable change in Etruria this change is traditionally seen as the adoption of superior models from Greece In a re alignment of agency this book examines a wide range of Etruscan material culture mirrors tombs sanctuaries houses and cities in order to demonstrate the importance of local concerns in the formation of Etruscan material culture Drawing on theoretical developments the book emphasises the deliberate nature of the smallest of changes in material culture form and develops the concept of surface as a unifying key to understanding the changes in the ways Etruscans represented themselves in life and death This concept allows a uniquely holistic approach to the archaeology of Etruscan society and has the potential for other archaeological investigations The book will interest all scholars and students of classical archaeology

Ways of Knowing Mark Harris,2007-10-01 That there are multiple ways of knowing the world has become a truism What meaning is left in the sheer familiarity of the phrase The essays here consider how humans come to know themselves and their worlds Should anthropologists should seek complexity or simplicity in their analyses of other societies By going beyond the notion that a way of knowing is a perspective on the world this book explores paths to understanding as people travel along them craft their knowledge and shape experience The topics examined here range from illness to ignorance teaching undergraduates in Scotland to learning a Brazilian martial arts dance Hegels concept of the dialectic to the poetry of a Swahili philosopher A central concern is how anthropologists can know and write about the silent theconcealed and theembodied
