Lars von Trier Beyond Depression Linda Badley, 2022-02-15 Lars von Trier built a reputation as a provocateur from the start but in the late 2000s he entered an even more inflammatory phase Amid Cannes controversies Antichrist 2009 Melancholia 2011 Nymphomaniac 2013 14 and The House That Jack Built 2018 brandished the cinematic virtuosity von Trier once banned under the Dogme 95 Manifesto while subjecting audiences to extreme cinema Following von Trier s experience of clinical depression in 2006 and 2007 these films took an aggressively personal and retrospective turn against the backdrop of the director s controversy courting public appearances Playing against widespread assumptions Linda Badley takes a reparative approach offering an in depth examination of these four films and the contexts that produced them Drawing on numerous interviews with the director and his collaborators as well as inside access to archival materials she provides a thorough and comprehensive account of von Trier s preproduction and creative process Highlighting a transmedial turn Badley tracks von Trier s artistic touchstones from Wagner Proust and the Marquis de Sade to Scandinavian erotic cinema and serial killer genre tropes She considers his portrayals of mental illness and therapy gender and sexuality nature and extinction shedding light on the thematic concerns that unite these films as a distinct cycle Offering nuanced readings of these films the book emphasizes the significance of von Trier s work for current critical and philosophical debates showing how they engage with notions of the Anthropocene dark ecology and the postcinematic

Depression, a Stepping-Stone Towards Bliss Modita van Zummeren, 2018-10-25 One third of humanity goes through one or more depressions in the course of his or her lifetime. Western treatment is so often a kind which appeals to the process of thinking and or the prescription of antidepressants. Modita van Zummeren has experienced both as a medical doctor and during her own depressions that this treatment doesn't work in most cases. In this book she describes how finally and definitively she came out of her depressions with consciousness. This book contains guidelines to come out of depression without antidepressants and with consciousness with the help of among other things Accepting the depression Family Constellations the Active Meditations from the Eastern Mythic Osho Body Oriented Therapy and finding Passion in life.

Beyond Blue Therese Borchard, 2010-01-06 Therese Borchard may be one of the funniest people on the planet. That combined with her keen writing abilities has made her Beliefnet blog Beyond Blue one of the most trafficked blogs on the site. BEYOND BLUE the book is part memoir part self help. It describes Borchard's experience of living with manic depression as well as providing cutting edge research and information on dealing with mood disorders. By exposing her vulnerability she endears herself immediately to the reader and then reduces even the most depressed to laughter as she provides a companion on the journey to recovery and the knowledge that the reader is not alone. Comprised of four sections and twenty one chapters BEYOND BLUE covers a wide range of topics from codependency to addiction poor body image to postpartum depression from alternative medicine to psychopharmacology managing anxiety to applying lessons from therapy. Because of her laser wit and Erma Bombeck sense of humor every chapter is entertaining as well as serious.
