Beyond Free Trade Harvard Business School Staff,1993-04-01 Beyond Free Trade grew from the conviction of David B Yoffie low tech bearings automobiles services insurance manufacturing raw materials They argue that the invisible hand of Adam Smith David Ricardo is being replaced by the guiding hands of multinational corporations governments As a result politicians firms now have the opportunity to structure global competition in new ways Global Economic Competition George Kozmetsky,Piyu Yue,2012-12-06 Global competitiveness has always been a hotly debated issue promoting differing opinions among economists management strategists business leaders and policy analysts and consultants Global Economic Competition provides a broad framework to compare the United States economy with 23 other global economies This is done by presenting empirical evidence in a series of comparative analyses of economic competition using data pertaining to specific countries industries and companies In this volume the electronics industries are used to illustrate an ongoing economic warfare among competing regions nations and cluster companies across the electronic technology chain Employing the latest empirical data to evaluate the competitiveness of the US economy and its electronic industries and companies in the 1980s and early 1990s Global Economic Competition will be of interest not only to those who study economics management science and international trade but also to policy makers and business leaders Policymaking and Prosperity Stuart S. Nagel,2003-01-01 Policymaking and Prosperity is the second volume of a three volume set that examines the multidimensional role of policy in the development and promotion of democracy prosperity and peace The prosperity volume discusses the relationship between democratic practices and economic prosperity Its chapters consider questions of bi and multilateral trade policy relations the impact of economic pluralism sustainable development the global agricultural economy international environmental politics and bioregionalism The Competitive Advantage of Nations: The Case of Turkey Özlem Öz,2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume applies Professor Michael Porter s diamond framework 1990 to the Turkish glass construction leather clothes automobile and flat steel industries zlam z aims primarily to contribute towards an improvement of this framework and thus towards a better understanding of the sources of competitive advantage Her research presents a new approach to evaluate the competitiveness of the Turkish economy given that alternative studies usually focus on factors like exchange rates and the cost of labour and raw materials as the determinants of competitive advantage The author begins her book by providing an evaluation of the diamond framework linked to the debate created by the publication of The Competitive Advantage of Nations She then identifies the pattern of advantage in Turkey by specifying the internationally competitive industries and clusters This is followed by a detailed examination of the five Turkish industry case studies glass construction leather clothes automobile and flat steel industries The findings are generally supportive of Porter The results suggest however several major areas in the framework especially domestic rivalry and the role of government where one or more of the Turkish cases question Porter s hypotheses The book ends with the implications of the study for the sources of competitive advantage in general and for the Turkish economy in particular Porter and his diamond framework are both unquestionably influential Improvements upon it forwarded in this book will be of use to academic readers as well as strategic planners and policy makers Globalization and the Politics of Resistance B. Gills,2000-04-07 The paradox of globalization is that it both weakens and activates social forces of resistance This book establishes the centrality of the political in our understanding of globalization and explores the new strategies of resistance emerging on local national regional and global scales Its impressively wide ranging set of contributors engage in re thinking what practices now constitute viable political strategies in the world economy focusing on popular responses to neoliberal globalization and the rearticulation of society politics and the state Who's who in International Business Education and Research William F. Shepherd,Iyanatul Islam,Sankaran Raghunathan,1999-01-01 This work is recommended for corporate libraries whose companies are involved in international business and for academic libraries affiliated with colleges of business Kay M Stebbins Choice This project is distinctive in that it really is a Who s Who rather than a directory of all scholars engaged in international business education and research Industry & Trade Summary: Computers, Peripherals, & Computer Components Julie Throne,1994-12 Contains U S industry profile foreign industry profile U S trade measures foreign trade measures U S market foreign markets and U S trade balance Also tariff and trade agreement terms and glossary of terms 17 charts and tables Made by the USA A. Hybel,2001-04-20 Made by the U S A The International System is a historical account embedded in a set of theoretical constructs of the two hundred year drive by the United States to first become a global power and second create an international security and economic system capable of protecting and promoting its strategic and economic interests International Trade and Competition David B. Yoffie,Benjamin Gomes-Casseres,1994 Focuses on international trade from the practical perspective of general managers The multi disciplinary approach blends theories of international trade and political economy with concrete managerial issues to provide a strategic framework for managing international competition Unwanted Company Jonathan Crystal,2003 US firms especially multinationals have conflicting interests regarding investment protection Crystal shows Many American firms under siege from overseas competitors have already expended considerable energy in obtaining trade protection but they are competing not only with foreign imports but also with locally established foreign owned firms American businesses may favour stricter regulation of foreign companies that threaten their bottom line but they also consider their own interests as global investors subject to retaliatory protection in other countries Restrictions on foreign investment it seems are not so attractive when they are imposed by other countries Co-operation in International Business Michael James Blaine,1994 This volume explores the role critical environmental factors play in shaping the foreign activities of multinational enterprises The work combines an extensive review of recent research in international business strategic management and organizational theory with an empirical study of US multinational enterprises The objective is to assess the impact of key economic social and political variables on the MNE s use of majority and minority owned affiliates in specific markets This analysis yields a number of provocative and counter intuitive findings which should be of interest to managers and policy makers

Timing and Performance of Post-entry Foreign Subsidiaries Ruihua Jiang,2004 The Domestic Politics of International Regulatory Policy John E.
