Beyond the Bake Sale Susan Saint-Joy, 2025-10-02 What happens when a parent steps into leadership and discovers her true purpose behind the sign in sheets and bake sales Beyond the Bake Sale The True Calling of a PTA

President follows Susan Saint Joy's real life journey from parent volunteer to community leader offering a powerful and heartfelt look at what it means to serve, advocate and lead within today's school systems. Set in a suburban Long Island New York school district, this inspiring narrative reveals the emotional labor, strategic planning and resilience required to build inclusive parent communities. Written by an educator, mother and doctoral candidate in management, this book is for anyone, especially women, caregivers and changemakers who have ever wondered if their voice matters. It does, and it starts here.

Beyond a Bake Sale Emily Yuan, 2019-12-02 How could a student cold calling firms as part of a dare lead to securing venture capitalist funding? How could a small observation at the airport lead to the formation of a business dedicated to assisting the disabled? How could boredom in class lead to collaboration with the government to redesign public educational curricula? Over 50% of high schoolers volunteer and 72% want to start a business some day. Yet students often miss out on the value of looking at social entrepreneurship, the intersection of forming a business and positively contributing to their community. In her book Emily Yuan tackles the important elements of entrepreneurship through stories of students who changed the world by capitalizing on their passion and abilities. She answers the questions held by students who have the drive to create change but not the knowledge of how to take the next step like: What does it take to start a company? Will I be able to create a start up while still in school? How do social ventures differ from traditional start ups? Beyond a Bake Sale inspires students to understand power of social entrepreneurship and how young people can create impact through business.

The American Family, 1985 Instructor, 2008 Books in Print, 1994 Beyond the Bake Sale Missy Loewe, David R. Mould, 2007-04 Everyone knows the fund raising value of traditional bake sales and car washes which work well for many groups but getting more attention including newspapers, TV and radio requires giving your volunteers and staff more to work with. To raise more money you need new, fresh and fun ideas. This book lists 100. Many will suit your group perfectly. For others you might choose one idea and add elements from another to make it fit your needs or you might combine a few for a super sized event. The goal is to get your organization excited about new fun ways to raise money. Take this book, cut and paste ideas into other ideas, try the same event with different themes and make fund raising something your supporters look forward to rather than something they dread. Making money is fun and rewarding, especially if it gets the community involved. Good luck in your endeavors. Teacher Education in the Trump Era and Beyond Laura Baecher, Megan Blumenreich, Shira Eve Epstein, Julie Horwitz, 2018-12-21 This book aims to start the conversation about how the consequences of the historic 2016 election can be addressed in the teacher education classroom. Taking as its starting point the Trump administration's dramatic influence on education, educational policy, the culture in schools and the safety of children, contributors demonstrate how teacher educators across the United States are adapting their curriculum. The chapters represent a variety of aspects of teacher support and preparation and address practices such as rejecting xenophobia, developing critical thinking and responding to children's emotional lives. The issues addressed in this volume are a continuation of conflicts and challenges with which educators have long grappled and the contributors insights will be valuable under a range of future political circumstances Looking at Schools, 1987 The Journal of Family and Culture, 1987 The Harvard Education Letter, 1988 Beyond Powerful Radio Valerie Geller, 2012-07-26 Beyond Powerful Radio is a complete guide to becoming a powerful broadcast communicator on radio or internet This how to cookbook is for broadcasters who want to learn the craft and improve This practical and easy to read book filled with bullet lists offers techniques to learn everything from how to produce and host a show to news gathering coverage of investigative and breaking stories writing and delivering the commercial copy and selling the air time With contributions from over 100 top experts across all broadcast fields Beyond Powerful Radio offers techniques advice and lessons to build original programming for news programming talk shows producers citizen journalism copy writing sales commercials promotions production research fundraising and more Plus Tips to assemble a winning team to develop build and market your brand get your next job in broadcasting effectively promote your product increase sales write and produce commercials raise money with your station deal with creative burnout and manage high ego talent and to research and grow your audience Never be boring Get keep and grow audiences through powerful personality storytelling and focus across any format Tried and true broadcast techniques apply to the myriad forms of audio broadcast available today including Web radio and podcasting While the technology and delivery systems change the one constant is content Listeners viewers and surfers want to be entertained informed inspired persuaded and connected with powerful personalities and storytellers A full Instructor Manual is available with complete lesson plans for broadcast instructors course includes Audio Production Radio Programming Management Broadcast Journalism The Instructor Manual is available for download here <http://cw.routledge.com/textbooks/9780240522241>
