Beyond The Classics Essays In Religious Studies Liberal Education:

Beyond the Classics? Sheryl Burkhalter, Frank Reynolds, 1990      Teaching Buddhism in the West Victor Sōgen Hori, Richard P. Hayes, James Mark Shields, 2002 This book provides a series of thematically arranged articles written by contemporary scholars of Buddhism throughout North America      Beyond the Classics? Sheryl Burkhalter, Frank Reynolds, 1990      Religious Studies, Theology, and the University Linell E. Cady, Delwin Brown, 2002-10-10 This collection explores the highly contested relationship of religious studies and theology and the place of each if any in secular institutions of higher education The founding narrative of religious studies with its sharp distinction between teaching religion and teaching about religion grows less compelling in the face of globalization and the erosion of modernism These essays take up the challenge of thinking through the identity and borders of religious studies and theology for our time Reflecting a broad range of positions the authors explore the religious secular conceptual landscape that has dominated the modern West and in the process address the revision of the academic study of religion and theology now underway

Pragmatic Historicism Sheila Greeve Davaney, 2000-09-07 Sheila Greeve Davaney develops a bold new option in theology and religious reflection pragmatic historicism which emerges out of the historicist assumptions of human situatedness particularity and plurality that have come to characterize Western thought The major theological attempts by postliberal and revisionist theology to incorporate these insights have failed to contend fully with the historicist challenge Davaney s pragmatic historicism more clearly repudiates essentialism universalism and confessionalism The theology that emerges is constructive and critical resisting all forms of confessionalism without resorting to new forms of universalism In its academic mode it is interpreted not in opposition to religious studies but as one subdiscipline within the study of religion whose major concerns are the identification analysis and critical reconstruction of religious ideas As such it is a form of cultural analysis and criticism The work includes a detailed exploration of the thought of philosophical pragmatists Richard Rorty Cornel West and Jeffrey Stout and theologians Sallie McFague John B Cobb Jr Gordon Kaufman Delwin Brown and William Dean among others      Advocacy in the Classroom Patricia Meyer Spacks, 1996-10-15 Noted literary critic Patricia Meyer Spacks has gathered together a group of both liberal and conservative professors to answer the question of whether or not a teacher can still bring passionate commitment to an idea into the classroom as a way of engaging students in a meaningful way      Studying Religion: An Introduction Through Cases Gary E. Kessler, 2007      Religion Index Two, 1992      Variations on a Teaching/Learning Workshop Linda L. Barnes, 1999 As part of a major focus on teaching the American Academy of Religion inaugurated a series of workshops on pedagogy in religious studies The workshops gathered together scholars who were already fine teachers to reflect on good teaching and to explore what comprises effective teaching and learning Linda Barnes presents in this book an ethnographic description of these workshops exploring practical and theoretical issues directly related to teaching in this field BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell

North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Critical Thinking and the Academic Study of Religion Richard Penaskovic,1997 Originally Published by Scholars Press Now Available from Duke University Press This work responds to a renewed emphasis on teaching in the academy Written from the perspective of a classroom teacher it is a practical application of the principles behind the critical thinking movement to the study of religion Emphasizing that the acquisition of critical thinking depends less on what is taught than on how it is taught the author presents concrete examples from his own experience to illustrate a student centered approach to teaching By demonstrating how the study of religion contributes to the development of critical thinking through the acquisition of problem solving decision making and metacognitive skills Penaskovic suggests its value to a broader liberal arts curriculum as well Both a theoretical view of critical thinking and a nuts and bolts manual on how it can be used and assessed in the classroom this work will challenge new and veteran teachers alike to reexamine and renew what they do in the classroom      Temi E Problemi Della Storia Delle Religioni Nell'Europa Contemporanea Mariangela Monaca,Ennio Sanzi,2002      Twenty-first Century Christian Higher Education in Multi-cultural Asian Societies ,2000      The Journal of the International Association of Buddhist Studies International Association of Buddhist Studies,2003      The State of Buddhist Studies in the World, 1972-1997 Donald K.
