Beyond The Limbo Silence Elizabeth Nunez,2003-07-01 A haunting story Bears witness to the struggles of an African Caribbean woman as she seeks to find her place in America without selling her soul BEBE MOORE CAMPBELL Author of Your Blues Ain t Like Mine When Sara Edgehill is given a scholarship to leave Trinidad and attend a college in Wisconsin she is thrilled America the one she has seen in the movies is a land of dreams prosperity and equality Not like Trinidad where her parents cast disappointed glances her way because she wasn t born with lighter colored skin But when Sara leaves her island s brilliant green fields and warm sparkling waters for the pale cornfields of the Midwest the ties to her home and her past grip her as strongly as America s cold winter winds For as soon as Sara sets foot in her new home she must make tough decisions Wanting desperately to fit in she begins to understand that in America the color lines run deeper than they did even in Trinidad And as Sara forms ties with two other West Indian students the beguiling haunted Courtney and the passionate vivacious Sam she is irrevocably pulled into the very center of America s exploding civil rights movement

Beyond the Limbo Silence Elizabeth Nunez,1998 When Sara Edgehill leaves her home in Trinidad to attend college in Wisconsin she finds solace and friendship with Courtney another West Indian who covertly practices voodoo rituals and Sam a charismatic civil rights activist

Alien-nation and Repatriation Patricia Joan Saunders,2007-01-01 AlienNation and Repatriation is a critical examination of race sexuality gender and migration in Caribbean nationalist literatures The more complex contribution made in this book however is its insistence on centering the philosophical implications of interpreting or translating black female subjectivity back into the literary landscapes of Caribbean literary and cultural texts from which they were erased or disciplined into silence This book suggests that reading strategies reproduce hegemonic constructions of black women s identities and postionalities as subjects and citizens in Caribbean literature

The Use of Ghosts in Beloved and Beyond the Limbo Silence Milagros Rivera,2010-05 In the face of the loss of familial bonds founded in New World slavery the African American Toni Morrison and the Caribbean Elizabeth Nunez reverse the rupture of history and identity by a reinvention of the mother daughter relationship The distinct hauntings dramatized in Beloved and Beyond the Limbo Silence are founded in the Yoruba tradition brought from West Africa This study demonstrates the efficacy of ghost mother interactions as a vitalizing method toward the healing of historical trauma and identity Ghosts in therapeutic roles confirm the authoritative and historiographic power that the writers may conjure approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to en gender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds
