Beyond Winning:

Beyond Winning Robert H. Mnookin, Scott R. Peppet, Andrew S. Tulumello, 2004-04-15 Conflict is inevitable in both deals and disputes. Yet when clients call in the lawyers to haggle over who gets how much of the pie, traditional hard bargaining tactics can lead to ruin. Too often deals blow up, cases don't settle, relationships fall apart, justice is delayed. Beyond Winning charts a way out of our current crisis of confidence in the legal system. It offers a fresh look at negotiation aimed at helping lawyers turn disputes into deals and deals into better deals through practical, tough-minded problem-solving techniques. In this step-by-step guide to conflict resolution, the authors describe the many obstacles that can derail a legal negotiation, both behind the bargaining table with one's own client and across the table with the other side. They offer clear, candid advice about ways lawyers can search for beneficial trades, enlarge the scope of interests, improve communication, minimize transaction costs, and leave both sides better off than before. But lawyers cannot do the job alone. People who hire lawyers must help change the game from conflict to collaboration. The entrepreneur structuring a joint venture, the plaintiff embroiled in a civil suit, the CEO negotiating an employment contract, the real estate developer concerned with environmental hazards, the parent considering a custody battle, clients who understand the pressures and incentives a lawyer faces, can work more effectively within the legal system to promote their own best interests. Attorneys exhausted by the trench warfare of cases that drag on for years will find here a positive, proven approach to revitalizing their profession. Beyond Winning National Association of Fellowships Advisors. Conference, National Association of Fellowships Advisors. Conference Proceedings, 2005-04-01 Each year thousands of students apply for competitive national and international scholarships such as the Rhodes, Marshall, Gates, Cambridge, and Fulbright. The competition for these awards is intense, and students look to scholarship advisors for support. Many universities have created an office or designated part of an office to assist these students, which has provided greater access for students who may not have applied previously or successfully. It has also increased the competition. The twelve essays in this collection from the 2003 National Association of Fellowships Advisors Conference held at the University of Denver, essays by the heads of the Rhodes, Marshall, Gates, and Truman Scholarship foundations, provide a sense of the philosophy and direction of their programs. The essays provide information on new initiatives, insights into the history and significance of the programs, and insider tips for application and interview preparation. Other essays focus on the advising and application process from successful advisors at various universities, how the U.K. higher educational system differs from that in the United States, and the key issue of ethics in the application process. All the essays demonstrate that the scholarship application experience itself is a valuable one that is more about learning and service than it is about winning. Beyond Winning Kim Payne, Luis Llosa, Scott Lancaster, 2013-08-20 These days it seems everyone has a youth sports horror story, whether it's about a tyrant coach obsessed with his team record that only plays the best kids on the team, or a parent who publicly berates his kid for not making a goal. But should it really only be all about
