Queenslanders Rod Fisher, 2016 In a single timely tome Rod Fisher packs a lot of what is known about the history of the timbered house in Qld the sum of research writing and practice over 4 decades While breaking new ground on its origin and development the first 4 chapters concern several key themes 1 the evolution of a Vernacular class of housing in the north of Australia from aboriginal to modern day comprising a series of styles and the means of identifying each one by era and attribute 2 the historical context to traditional housing using census data and contemporary testimony to amplify its configuration which reflects cyclical condition personal choice and social acceptance 3 the human dimension to the main varieties of habitat and its environment specifically the pros and cons of observers and occupants of the day followed by resolution of their discrepancies 4 whether Brisbane was in any way different from the rest of the state examining which varieties made the greatest imprint from elite and multiple types to the predominant gabled hipped pyramidal and later multi gabled dwellings of the Vernacular tradition The next couple of chapters are case studies illustrating those aspects particularly the evolution of traditional housing and the impact of historical change Though set in Brisbane they reflect larger issues 5 the early inner suburb of Petrie Terrace which exhibits not only changes in timbered housing over time but also the effect of road improvement shopping centre diversion stadium development building renovation and gentrification more generally 6 a timbered dwelling of nearby Bowen Hills which being modified several times in its lifetime and finally removed elsewhere demonstrates change as well as the influence of the locale and the impact of transportation improvements on housing and community At the same time this volume serves as a guide and reference partly by information advice and example but more specifically by means of the handy classification of Vernacular styles in the 1st chapter and ultimately by instructions for researching any house in Qld 7 a step by step guide to historical investigation and exposition using a dwelling in Annerley Tarragindi as the example That practical purpose is reinforced in the final 3 chapters by a Supplement of related material Glossary of requisite terms and Bibliography of relevant sources on both the history and heritage of timbered housing plus plentiful illustrations of course As there hasn't been a work on this intriguing subject for a long time nor anything ever like this one it will serve general readers professionals researchers writers and academics on the one hand and owners occupants renovators restorers and vendors on the other whether in Brisbane Qld or elsewhere in Australia To all and sundry its core message is conveyed by one of Joni Mitchell s bygone ballads Don t it always seem to go That you don t know what you ve got Till it s gone They paved paradise And put up a parking lot
