Career In C Major And Other Fiction:

Career in C Major James M. Cain, 2013-08-13
From a famous tough guy writer a collection of shockingly funny stories
Ever since she got married Doris has regretted giving up her singing career After years of domestic drudgery she decides to take one last crack at becoming an opera singer even if it means sacrificing everything for the sake of her dream Her contractor husband is fully supportive having no idea that the family's true musical genius isn't Doris it's him
In this and other stories in Career in C Major James M Cain shows off a light comedic touch that will surprise readers who are familiar only with his crime novels The Postman Always Rings Twice and Double Indemnity But Cain had been publishing funny stories articles and satire since his early days as a reporter for H L Mencken's Baltimore Sun and was just as comfortable writing about singers as he was about killers This collection of Cain's lighter work shows that if an author is tough it doesn't mean he can't crack a smile

Whodunit? Rosemary Herbert, 2003-05-08
Who populates the pages of crime and mystery writing Who are the characters we willingly follow into the mystery genre's uneasy imaginative territory And who created those characters in the first place What life experience and expertise informs their work What are the sources of their themes regional accents and even the axes that some grind Why do some wish to give us a good laugh while others seem hell bent on making us shudder
Whodunit answers these questions and more Here mystery expert Rosemary Herbert brings together enlightening and entertaining information on hundreds of classic and contemporary characters and authors Some such as P D James Ian Rankin Sherlock Holmes and Kinsey Millhone appear in individual entries Still more keep company in articles about characters we admire such as the Clerical Sleuth and in pieces about those we love to hate including the Femme Fatale and Con Artist There is even an article on a figure that haunts so many great works of mystery The Corpse Drawing on the Edgar Award nominated volume The Oxford Companion to Crime Mystery Writing Herbert adds 101 new entries on the hottest new names in works ranging from puzzling whodunits to chilling crime novels
