How to control yours. Professor Garry Jennings, Caring for Older People Terry Smyth, Malcolm Geeves, 1996 Caring for Older People has been specially adapted for Australia and offers a systematic and imaginative approach to care planning based on the authors belief in the positive aspects of old age Care of the whole person is discussed in detail physical psychological social educational and spiritual needs are all covered The need for care workers to have an awareness of the values of a multicultural society is stressed throughout Care workers are encouraged to question what is involved in the caring process and to reflect on its impact on their own lives The work based activities develop the knowledge and skills needed to be an effective care worker Information is presented clearly and simply throughout making Caring for Older People an invaluable book for those training in the care sector or caring for an older person in their home Where it Hurts Cherry Russell, Toni Schofield, 2024-07-05 First published in 1986 Where it hurts provides a straightforward and accessible introduction to sociology for beginning students In dealing with key areas of sociology such as class gender race and ethnicity age work and the state and grounding theory and concepts in real issues it demonstrates how sociology works in a specific application the social history of health and health care Students for whom sociology is part of a health or welfare related course will find this a lively and thought provoking text But in its style and content it responds equally well to the demands of all beginning students in sociology for a clear and relevant introduction to the critical tradition

Taking Care of Men Anthony McMahon,1999-08-13 The idea of the sensitive post feminist new man has received great attention This book sets out to determine how much of the hype is based on fact and why such images have proliferated in the media McMahon focuses on the pivotal issue of men s relationship to the vital daily work of caring for people both physically and emotionally revealing much confusion about the extent and the interpretation of change Using statistical data as well as interview transcripts and media analysis McMahon draws insightful distinctions between pleasure and performance assistance and responsibility gendered personality and gendered jobs and underlying all between consumption and production Incorporating social theory psychology and popular culture this book argues that recent social conversation about men largely avoids the important political point that men s material interests provide a major motivation for resistance to pro equity change

Culture and Education Filiz Meseci Giorgetti,Ali Arslan,Craig Campbell,2020-06-29 This book explores the fascinating and complex interactions between the ways that culture and education operate within and across societies In some cases education is imagined as an integrated part of general cultural phenomena in others educational interventions become the means for transforming the cultural circumstances of different populations The contributors to this volume show how certain educational practices produce new cultural and professional knowledge discuss the impacts of initially foreign educational ideas and institutions on established cultural institutions in very different societies and explore the impacts of modernity and modern educational ideas on more traditional gendered and religious practices and communities The book also provided striking examples of when these impacts were not benign Increasingly powerful twentieth century governments attempted to use education and schools to produce new reformed citizens suitable for their newly created colonial national socialist and fascist states The expectation was that cultural and social transformation might be engineered in major part through schooling This book was originally published as a special issue of Paedagogica Historica

The Good Girl Stripped Bare Tracey Spicer,2017-05-01 From bogan to boned and beyond a full frontal femoir by one of Australia s best loved journalists From bogan to boned and beyond a full frontal femoir Tracey Spicer was always the good girl Inspired by Jana Wendt this bogan from the Brisbane backwaters waded through the cruel and shallow money trench of television to land a dream role national news anchor for a commercial network But the journalist found that for women TV was less about news and more about helmet hair masses of makeup and fatuous fashion in an era when bosses told you to stick your tits out lose two inches off your arse and quit before you're too long in the tooth Still Tracey plastered on a smile and did what she was told But when she was sacked by email after having a baby this good girl turned bad taking legal action against the network for pregnancy discrimination In this frank and funny femoir part memoir part manifesto Tracey sheconstructs the structural barriers facing women in the workplace and encourages us all to shake off the shackles of the good girl Glows with the wisdom of a woman who has learned essential truths about love life and happiness Caroline Overington Wickedly witty and wonderfully wise Wendy Harmer Fiercely smart and ferociously funny Benjamin Law Family ,1987 Australian Farm Journal ,2003 Australian National Bibliography ,1978 The Bulletin ,2001 Who's who of Australian Women Vivienne Smith,1982 Business Review Weekly ,1996 Refractory Girl ,1979 Social Work Margaret Alston,Jennifer McKinnon,2005 This is a comprehensive yet concise text that provides a broad overview of the main practice in social work Women and the Challenge of Long Life Alice Taylor Day,Australia.
