Caring For Your Historic House:

Caring for Your Historic House Heritage Preservation,1998-10 A house is considered historic if it is typical of its period usually more than 50 years old and significant in either design materials workmanship setting and or association This work provides advice on the ongoing care and maintenance of such properties and in the preservation of the qualities which make such homes unique Caring for Your Old House Judith L. Kitchen,1991-04 Gives advice to old house owners on rehabilitation and restoration Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums Jane Merritt,Julie A. Reilly,2010-01-16 Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums is a primer on the preventive care practices that these unique sites need to slow the rate of deterioration and prevent damage and wear to the property and its collections It proposes a collaborative approach to preservation planning that is based on interdisciplinary research critical thinking and observation rather than rote maintenance schedules and everyday residential cleaning practices The authors recommend that sites have documents and plans in place that direct the intellectual and physical control of the collections and site The intellectual controls include administrative and management policies and procedures the physical controls include security and safety precautions routine maintenance and cleaning practices among others Historic house administrators staff board members and volunteers will find this volume indispensable Professionals who deal with historic sites from the museum administrator or curator to architect to engineer as well as students pursuing studies in the field of preservation and conservation will also find this a valuable reference This volume promotes a pro active approach to preservation planning for historic sites and their collections Old-House Journal ,1999-03 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice Preserving Historic Architecture U.S. Department of the Interior,2013-02-08 The National Park Service a branch of the Department of the Interior knows preservation In its hundred year existence the service has dealt with just about every problem an old structure can have Whether it is removing graffiti in Manhattan or rebuilding a barn in Oregon the National Park Service knows what to do Here are the official U S guidelines a lively and instructive collection of tried and tested knowledge and reliable techniques written by the top experts in the field Over forty fully illustrated chapters addressing topics such as cleaning and waterproof coating of historic masonry roofing for historic buildings the preservation of historic glazed architectural terra cotta exterior paint problems on historic woodwork the preservation of historic barns heating ventilating and cooling historic buildings historic signs applied decoration for historic interiors using substitute materials on historic building exteriors understanding old buildings understanding architectural cast iron Every chapter is written with the utmost detail and clarity so that any reader can perform the safest and most historically accurate repairs The book also offers invaluable advice on what not to do that can save a homeowner thousands of dollars hours and perhaps a priceless piece of architecture For the hobbyist or the professional restorer The Preservation of Historic Architecture is the definitive government text on restoring repairing and preserving old buildings Historic Nantucket, 1999 The walled city of Multan Mariacristina Giambruno, Sonia Pistidda, 2015-09-10 Multan one of the oldest inhabited cities in the Asian subcontinent and the sixth largest within the boundaries of Pakistan is a city in the Punjab Province of Pakistan and capital of Multan District A very complex place where the process of constant stratification have left many signs on the urban texture Here the different issues and problems involved often with no easy solutions face with the ethical responsibility and cure required from the historic and cultural heritage how can we improve the urban quality and the living conditions of the inhabitants and at the same time preserve the unique identity of the places These Guidelines try to face a challenge testing new ways of project starting from the specificities offered by the local culture and putting in place alternative practices of architecture A Building History of Northern New England James L. Garvin, 2002-05 The first and only full scale technical and stylistic analysis of 200 years of architectural evolution in northern New England Directory of Historic House Museums in the United States Patricia Chambers Walker, Thomas Graham, 2000 The first comprehensive guide to America s historic house museums this directory moves beyond merely listing institutions to providing information about interpretive themes historical and architectural significance collections and cultural and social importance along with programming events and facility information Useful cross reference guides provide quick and easy ways of locating information on almost 2500 museums A multi functional reference for museum professionals local historians historic preservationists or anyone interested in America s historic house museums Starting Right Gerald W. George, Cindy Sherrell-Leo, 2004 Here in this second edition updating the original by Gerald George and Cindy Sherrell Leo you will find out in straightforward language what a museum is philosophically and historically some pros and cons of establishing your museum up to date resource lists and good basic advice on all aspects of museums from the choice of a building through collections care registration exhibitions conservation staffing financial management and fund raising Historic House Museums Sherry Butcher-Young, 1993 Historic house museums can be found in nearly every city in the United States and Canada These are the homes of the earliest settlers statesmen frontiersmen great writers artists architects and industrial magnates These are the places carefully saved and preserved that represent a cultural heritage Despite their popularity it is not uncommon to find museums that are in poor repair their collections neglected and their staffs grossly overworked Many are run by well meaning and hard working volunteers who have little or no professional training Often they survive on shoestring budgets and are able to present only limited programs Serving both as a hands on guide and reference this book examines these problems offering practical advice and solutions which can be easily implemented Its useful lessons include governance where to find help care of collections conservation security and interpretation all designed to increase the professionalism of the historic house museum      Program American Association for State and Local History. Meeting, 1994

Restoring Your Historic House Scott T Hanson, 2023-06-01 Although there are other books about renovating old houses this is the first that prioritizes the identification and preservation of the historic character defining features of a house as a starting point in the process That is the purpose of this book to describe and illustrate a best practices approach for updating historic homes for modern life in ways that do not attempt to turn an old house into a new one The book also suggests many ways to save money in the process without settling for cheap or inappropriate solutions Scott Hanson is a historic building preservation professional and has 40 years experience rehabilitating historic houses He has illustrated this authoritative book with hundreds of step by step photos illustrations charts and decision making guides Interspersed throughout are photo essays of 13 restored historic houses representing a range of periods and architectural styles Italianate Victorian Queen Anne Federal Colonial Colonial Revival Greek Revival Ranch Adobe Craftsman Shingle and Rustic With interior and exterior photography by David Clough these multi page features show what can be achieved when a historic home is renovated with a desire to preserve or restore as much historic character as possible      The Old-house Journal ,2000      The Mountain Light ,1997      Historic Homes and Places and Genealogical and Personal Memoirs Relating to the Families of Middlesex County, Massachusetts William Richard Cutter, 1908      Collections ,2005
