Carl Oscar Borg And The Magic Of Region:

Carl Oscar Borg and the Magic Region Helen Laird, 1986      The Majesty of the Grand Canyon Joni Kinsey, 2004 Little was known about America's most famous natural wonder until 1869 when John Wesley Powell traveled the full length of the Grand Canyon by boat. He returned each year. In 1873 he introduced it to artist Thomas Moran whose brazenly colored grand scale portrayals of the canyon stunned the public. In 1908 Moran's work prompted President Theodore Roosevelt to declare the Grand Canyon a national monument. By 1919 Congress had established Grand Canyon National Park. As the Santa Fe Railway opened up the Southwest in 1892 the company began hiring artists to paint scenes of the Grand Canyon including Moran, W. R. Leigh and Louis Akin. Today artists are still capturing the splendor of the Grand Canyon. Ed Mell, Clark Hulings, Wilson Hurley, Frank Mason, P. A. Nisbet, Bruce Aiken and Earl Carpenter are among the contemporary artists represented in The Majesty of the Grand Canyon.

Collecting Native America, 1870-1960 Shepard Krech III, 2014-08-19 Between the 1870s and 1950s collectors vigorously pursued the artifacts of Native American groups. Setting out to preserve what they thought was a vanishing culture they amassed ethnographic and archaeological collections amounting to well over one million objects and founded museums throughout North America that were meant to educate the public about American Indian skills, practices and beliefs. In Collecting Native America contributors examine the motivations, intentions and actions of eleven collectors who devoted substantial parts of their lives and fortunes to acquiring American Indian objects and founding museums. They describe obsessive hobbyists such as George Heye who, beginning with the purchase of a lice-ridden shirt, built a collection that still unsurpassed in richness, diversity and size today forms the core of the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian. Sheldon Jackson, a Presbyterian missionary in Alaska, collected and displayed artifacts as a means of converting Native peoples to Christianity. Clara Endicott Sears used sometimes invented displays and ceremonies at her Indian Museum near Boston to emphasize Native American spirituality. The contributors chart the collectors' diverse attitudes towards Native peoples, showing how their limited contact with American Indian groups resulted in museums that revealed more about assumptions of the wider society than about the cultures being described.

Painters and the American West Joan Carpenter Troccoli, Marlene Chambers, Jane Comstock, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), Sarah Anschutz Hunt, Denver Art Museum, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), 2000-01-01 This book offers a tour of a collection of paintings of the American West still in private hands. The Anschutz Collection covers all the ground expected in a wide-ranging major survey yet still has plenty of room for surprises. Every phase in the history of American art since the 1820s is included. There are pictures of impressive quality by lesser-known artists and examples from all the major painters who have depicted the West. You'll discover works by artists such as Marsden Hartley, Childe Hassam, Jan Matulka and John Henry Twachtman who painted western subjects only rarely and pictures by those whose subjects were predominantly western. The collection is particularly rich in paintings made in Taos and Santa Fe during the first half of the twentieth century when major American artists often found inspiration and stylistic renewal in the Southwest Among the American masters represented here are George Bellows Albert Bierstadt George Caleb Bingham Ernest Blumenschein George Catlin Stuart Davis Asher B Durand George Inness John Marin Alfred Jacob Miller Thomas Moran Georgia O Keeffe Frederic Remington Charles Marion Russell and Walter Ufer BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Branding the American West Marian Wardle,Sarah E. Boehme,2016-02-17 Artists and filmmakers in the early twentieth century reshaped our vision of the American West In particular the Taos Society of Artists and the California based artist Maynard Dixon departed from the legendary depiction of the Wild West and fostered new images or brands for western art This volume illustrated with more than 150 images examines select paintings and films to demonstrate how these artists both enhanced and contradicted earlier representations of the West Prior to this period American art tended to portray the West as a wild frontier with untamed lands and peoples Renowned artists such as Henry Farny and Frederic Remington set their work in the past invoking an environment immersed in conflict and violence This trademark perspective began to change however when artists enamored with the Southwest stamped a new imprint on their paintings The contributors to this volume illuminate the complex ways in which early twentieth century artists as well as filmmakers evoked a southwestern environment not just suspended in time but also permanent rather than transient Yet as the authors also reveal these artists were not entirely immune to the siren call of the vanishing West and their portrayal of peaceful yet exotic Native Americans was an expansion rather than a dismissal of earlier tropes Both brands cast a romantic spell on the West and both have been seared into public consciousness Branding the American West is published in association with the Brigham Young University Museum of Art Provo Utah and the Stark Museum of Art Orange Texas California Andrew Rolle,Arthur C.
