The Brujo's Way Gerald W. McFarland, 2014-03-15 Don Carlos Buenaventura a powerful brujo in his sixth life practices a benign form of sorcery based on his motto Do no harm His great powers derive from intensive training in heightened awareness akin to Eastern yogic disciplines rather than from incantations spells or aid from demon allies He is accidentally born in 1684 into an aristocratic Catholic family in Mexico City a social and religious milieu in which his identity as a brujo if known would put him in mortal danger In repressing any sign that he is other than an ordinary young man he forgets both his brujo powers and who he really is Exiled at nineteen to the remote frontier town of Santa Fe New Mexico he is exposed during the journey northward to wild desert landscapes that awaken his forgotten powers In Santa Fe he resumes his conventional persona to protect what he now recognizes is his true identity and is caught in the tension of trying to live two lives An arduous return trip to Mexico City and back further intensifies his brujo powers leading to many adventures including dangerous encounters with an evil sorcerer an Apache war party and a woman devotee of an ancient Aztec goddess and also stimulates his recall in dreams of his brujo training in past lives A chance meeting in Mexico City with a woman trained in Tantric spirituality is life changing opening him to other dimensions of consciousness Returning to Santa Fe he faces the task of learning to unite his Brujo s Way with his new spiritual path
