Carnal Art C. Jill O'Bryan, 2005 The French artist Orlan is famous for performances during which her body is surgically altered During her performances viewers witness a material tampering with the relationship between the face and individual identity the original and the constructed a historical critique of the association of art with beauty and the female body

ORLAN Simon Donger, Simon Shepherd, 2010-05-20 ORLAN is a study of ORLAN's pioneering art The book covers her entire career in performance and a range of other art forms It describes and analyses her various innovative uses of the body as artistic material Performing Arts in Transition Susanne Foellmer, Maria Katharina Schmidt, Cornelia

Schmitz, 2018-12-07 Artists especially from dance and performance art as well as opera are involved to an increasing degree in the transfer between different media not only in their productions but also the events materials and documents that surround them At the same time the focus on that which remains has become central to any discussion of performance

Performing Arts in Transition explores what takes place in the moments of transition from one medium to another and from the live performance to that which survives it Case studies from a broad range of interdisciplinary scholars address phenomena such as The dynamics of transfer between the performing and visual arts The philosophy and terminologies of transitioning between media Narratives and counternarratives in historical re-creations The status of chronology and the document in art scholarship This is an essential contribution to a vibrant multidisciplinary and international field of research emerging at the intersections of performance visual arts and media studies Performed Imaginaries Richard provocative book an important book jagodzinski's and Wallin's betrayal is in fact a wake up call for art based research a loving critique of its directions jagodzinski's and Wallin's reference is the question what art can do not what it means Theirs is an ultimate affirmation that uncovers the singularities that compose and give consistency to art not as an object but as an event Their betrayal consists in an affirmation of life and becoming positing a performative mechanics of the arts which is in absolute contraposition with the hegemonic discourse of art and as an object of knowledge and representation This does not
