Between Totem and Taboo Roger Little, 2001 Between Totem and Taboo picks its way judiciously through a minefield of prejudice myth and stereotypes It is the first book to explore the literary representation by authors black and white male and female of interracial relations between France and her former territories in West Africa through the special nexus of the white woman and the black man Presented as a text based chronological exploration of the relationship from 1740 to the present day it reveals how racism distorted such relations for a quarter of a millennium It will fascinate anyone seriously interested in Black studies Women s studies and Postcolonial studies who will find in it not only many unknown or unconsidered texts but a new angle of approach to their research All quotations are in French and English Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett, 2018-07-17 In Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett explores the taboo subject of male homoerotic desire between black Africans and white Europeans in francophone colonial and postcolonial literatures Everett exposes the intersection of power and desire in blanc noir relationships in colonial and postcolonial black Africa and postimperial Europe Reading these literatures for their portrayals of race gender and sexuality Everett begins a conversation about personal and political violence in the face of forbidden desires The Black Musketeer Eric Martone, 2011-05-25 Alexandre Dumas author of The Three Musketeers The Count of Monte Cristo and The Man in the Iron Mask is the most famous French writer of the nineteenth century In 2002 his remains were transferred to the Panth on a mausoleum reserved for the greatest French citizens amidst much national hype during his bicentennial Contemporary France struggling with the legacies of colonialism and growing diversity has transformed Dumas grandson of a slave from St Domingue now Haiti into a symbol of the colonies and the larger francophone world in an attempt to integrate its immigrants and migrants from its former Caribbean African and Asian colonies to improve race relations and to promote French globality Such a reconception of Dumas has made him a major figure in debates on French identity and colonial history Ten years after Dumas s interment in the Panth on the time is ripe to re evaluate Dumas within this context of being a representative of la Francophonie The French re evaluation of Dumas therefore invites a reassessment of his life works legacy and previous scholarship This interdisciplinary collection is the first major work to take up this task It is unique for being the first scholarly work to bring Dumas into the center of debates about French identity and France s relations with its former colonies For the purposes of this collection to analyze Dumas in a francophone context means to explore Dumas as a symbol of a French culture shaped by and inclusive of its former colonies and current overseas departments The seven entries in this collection which focus on providing new ways of interpreting The Three Musketeers The Man in the Iron Mask The Count of Monte Cristo and Georges are categorized into two broad groups The first group focuses on Dumas s relationship with the francophone colonial world during his lifetime which was characterized by the slave trade and provides a postcolonial re examination of his work which was impacted profoundly by his status as an individual of black colonial descent in metropolitan France The second part of this collection which is centered broadly around Dumas's francophone legacy examines the way he has been remembered in the larger French speaking postcolonial world which includes metropolitan France in the past century to explore questions about French identity in an emerging global age Postcolonial Eyes Aedín Ní Loingsigh, 2009-01-01 Over the past two decades interest in travel has developed significantly Critical engagement with imperialism postcolonialism diasporas ethnography and cultural anthropology has led to increasingly sophisticated readings of the travel writing genre and a growing acknowledgement of its complex history Postcolonial Eyes is the first study of its kind to identify a specifically Sub Saharan African lineage within the broader tradition of travel writing As well as exploring the reasons for Africans exclusion from the genre the book examines the important relationship between ethnicity and travel and identifies the concerns and preoccupations that define African writers approaches to travel
