Between Worlds:

Between Worlds Lindsey Büster, Eugène Warmenbol, Dimitrij Mlekuž, 2018-12-18 The recent resurgence of academic interest in caves has demonstrated the central roles they played as arenas for ritual ceremony and performance and their importance within later prehistoric cosmologies Caves represent very particular types of archaeological site and require novel approaches to their recording interpretation and presentation This is especially true in understanding the ritual use of caves when the less tangible aspects of these environments would have been fundamental to the practices taking place within them Between Worlds explores new theoretical frameworks that examine the agency of these enduring natural places and the complex interplay between environment taphonomy and human activity It also showcases the application of innovative technologies such as 3D laser scanning and acoustic modelling which provide new and exciting ways of capturing the experiential qualities of these enigmatic sites Together these developments offer more nuanced understandings of the role of caves in prehistoric ritual and allow for more effective communication management and presentation of cave archaeology to a wide range of audiences

Between Worlds Hava Tirosh-Samuelson, 1991-01-22 It is a work of sound scholarship dealing with an interesting historical figure and his unique cultural world The author focuses correctly on the transition from Italian to Ottoman Jewish culture in the life of David Messer Leon and reveals much about the continuities and discontinuities between both societies He nicely fuses social and intellectual history and uses a life to illuminate a number of interesting and important cultural trends among early modern Jews particularly the integration of kabbalah and philosophy Humanism and Thomism The presentation of the symbiotic nature of Jewish culture with contemporary intellectual trends and the appropriation of Christian theological strategies by a Jewish thinker to explain Judaism make this study a fascinating one

Writing-between-Worlds Ottmar Ette, 2016-02-22 This book proposes that there is no better no more complex way to access a community a society an era and its cultures than through literature For millennia literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life about survival and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step by step intellectual and affective experiences Through this ability it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances Literature what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam Germany since 1995 He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America MLA elected in 2014 member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities elected in 2013 and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010 Between Worlds Rosabelle Boswell,2022-03-11 Because of the climate crisis and declining ocean health humans are increasingly in a liminal space between this world and imaginary alien worlds to come The poems raise the issue of climate change by foregrounding the centrality beauty and significance of the ocean and of marine life to humanity They suggest that all species live between worlds between fantasy and reality dreaming and wakefulness intuition and consciousness water and air We need all worlds to survive Serendipitously the poems were composed between dusk and dawn They are both part thoughts and whole thoughts that come to inspire my ethnographic writing Words Between Worlds John Dominelli,2023-11-30 In 1974 when John Dominelli was twenty years old he left his home in Port Coquitlam British Columbia on what he originally thought would be a six month working holiday in New Zealand However not long into his journey feeling the seductive pull of the vast and mysterious world what started as a planned sojourn eventually turned into an epic three year spiritual odyssey taking him from New Zealand to Australia Asia India Europe and many points between John s journey was interrupted and enriched by a psycho emotional meltdown two serious illnesses a powerful psychedelic interlude with psilocybin mushrooms and a mystical encounter with Nisargadatta Maharaj the now well known sage from Bombay An epic coming of age memoir that is part love letter to a bygone age and part inspirational text stirring a desire in readers to seek out a life less ordinary Between Worlds David E.
