Between Worlds Mla Update:

Between Worlds Bachman,1998-11 Changing Subjects Gayle Greene,Coppélia Kahn,2012-08-21 These twenty autobiographical essays by eminent feminist literary critics explore the process by which women scholars became feminist scholars articulating the connections between the personal and political in their lives and work They describe the experiences that radicalised women within academia and without as students professors scholars political activists women From these diverse histories a collective history emerges of the development of feminism as an intellectual and social movement as a heuristic tool as the redefinition of knowledge and power This book presents a history of the field through the eyes of those who have created it Offering a spectrum of experiences and critical positions that engage with current debates in feminism it will be valuable to teachers and students of feminist theory women s studies and the history of the women s movement It will interest female writers and scholars in all disciplines and anyone who cares about feminism and its future

History of Bihar Between the Two World Wars, 1919-1939 Ram Sewak,1985 The World Bank Legal Review Hassane Cisse,Chantal Thomas,2012-12-11 Much has been written about the role of law in furthering development More analysis and debate is needed to understand more fully the true nature of this role The World Bank Legal Review collects much of this debate and analysis contributed by scholars and practitioners from around the world The subtitle of the volume Legal Innovation and Empowerment for Development focuses attention on how the law can respond to the challenges posed to development in a world slowly emerging from a protracted economic crisis Innovation in law means new strategies and ways of thinking about what the law can do in the development realm Empowerment can mean many things such as how to place the law into the hands of the poor The two concepts are linked by their relevance to the future of law as a force for development This volume contains essays that examine legal innovations and efforts at empowerment worldwide in individual countries and in the broader international system more generally Contributions have been collected from scholars and practitioners from across the world The World Bank Legal Review is an important contribution to the scholarship of law and development

Water Resources Cooperation between India and Nepal Ms Monika Mandal,2016-05-15 Trans boundary rivers between Nepal and India have long signified both cooperation and dispute Though both countries are highly interested in mutual cooperation for the development of the shared rivers their attempt to bring things to a successful solution has been hampered by debate Several treaties and agreements have been signed over time by these countries such as the Koshi Agreement the Mahakali Treaty the Gandak Agreement etc While some of these have generated positive outcomes others are languishing for reasons political rather than technical Nepal is not able to harness its water resources while India is seeking cooperation in order to utilise the shared water Lack of trust negotiations and compromise along with vested political interests have affected the degree of cooperation over shared rivers between India and Nepal To make cooperation more fruitful the two countries first need to build trust identify the merits and demerits compromise for the sake of the common good share information with each other and implement the mutually agreed upon cooperation package The essays in this volume bring together a spectrum of viewpoints on this issue This volume is the outcome of an international conference on this subject organised by the Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Institute of Asian Studies Kolkata MAKAIAS in collaboration with the B P Koirala India Nepal Foundation Embassy of India

Negotiations in the Indigenous World Ciaran

O'Faircheallaigh,2015-09-16 Negotiated agreements play a critical role in setting the conditions under which resource development occurs on Indigenous land Our understanding of what determines the outcomes of negotiations between Indigenous peoples and commercial interests is very limited With over two decades experience with Indigenous organisations and communities Ciaran O Faircheallaigh s book offers the first systematic analysis of agreement outcomes and the factors that shape them based on evaluative criteria developed especially for this study on an analysis of 45 negotiations between Aboriginal peoples and mining companies across all of Australia s major resource producing regions and on detailed case studies of four negotiations in Australia and Canada

Initiation Between Two Worlds Jens Peter Schjødt,2008

The purpose of this book is to apply theories and perspectives from the Study of Religion or Comparative Religion to the study of the pre Christian culture in the North The basic idea is that such an application will enlighten our understanding of some myths and other narratives which from other points of view may seem obscure and thus give us a glimpse into the world view of the pagan Scandinavians which cannot be obtained otherwise The book deals with problems within the study of Religion as well as within Scandinavian Studies and hopefully it can inspire scholars from both fields
